Seven Hundred Dollars Reward.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the Sum of SEVEN HUNDRED PIECES OF EIGHT is raiſed by Subſcription among the Inhabitants of the City of Philadelphia, and now offered, with the Approbation of his Honour the GOVERNOR, as a Reward for any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall bring into this City the Heads of SHINGAS, and Captain JACOBS, Chiefs of the Delaware Indian Nation; or Three Hundred and Fifty Pieces of Eight for each, provided that due Proof is made of being the real Heads of ſaid Shingas or Captain Jacobs, they having received many Favours from this Government, and now treacherouſly deſerted our Intereſt, and become the principal Inſtruments in alienating the Affections of the Indians from his Majeſty and the People of this Province.

N. B. It is expected that this Subſcription will ſoon be conſiderably increaſed.

The SPEECH of his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland, to both Houſes of Aſſembly, on Monday the Twenty-third of February, 1756.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly,

I MEET you at this Time to give you an Opportunity of providing for your own immediate Safety, and of contributing to the Execution of a Plan, that, in Obedience to his Majeſty's Inſtructions to General Shirley, has been concerted, for preventing the farther Encroachments of his Majeſty's ambitious Enemies on his American Dominions, and diſpoſſeſſing them of what they have moſt unjuſtly, and in manifeſt Violation of Treaties, lately made themſelves Maſters of. In Confidence that you will keep them ſecret, I ſhall, for your Satisfaction, lay before you a Copy of the Minutes of the Proceedings of a Council of War, held at New-York, together with ſome Papers that I received from the General therewith; whence you will learn what Supplies are expected from his Majeſty's ſeveral Colonies on the Continent, towards carrying the propoſed Plan into Execution: And as I doubt not but you are affected with as deep a Senſe of the Danger of ſuffering the Enemy to make any farther Progreſs, and of your Duty to his Majeſty, as any of your Fellow Subjects in the neighbouring Provinces, I perſuade myſelf you will acquit yourſelves, on this Occaſion, as well as the moſt zealous of them; and that you will chearfully exert your utmoſt Endeavours to render thoſe Enterprizes ſucceſsful that are undertaken for our common Safety, and in the Event of which we are ſo nearly intereſted.

I need not obſerve to you, that our Circumſtances and Proſpect are much altered ſince laſt Spring; you are all too well acquainted with the Iſſue of the Expedition, in which the Troops that his Majeſty had been graciouſly pleaſed to order from Europe to our Aſſiſtance, and ſome of the Provincial Forces, were then engaged, and the Conſequences thereof to theſe Southern Colonies. Moſt of the Delaware and Shawaneſe Tribes, who were then eſteemed our Friends, the French, by their Artifices, have now withdrawn from their Attachment to his Majeſty's Subjects, and inſtigated them to make our Frontier Inhabitants feel and experience the Calamities of an Indian War. With Impunity have theſe Blood-thirſty Savages laid great Part of three Provinces deſolate; fluſhed with Victory they bid us Defiance, and inſolently threaten, that their cruel Rage will not be ſatisfied with leſs than our Extirpation; but I decline to enlarge on this Topic, leſt I ſhould ſeem to ſuſpect, that your Reſentment is not already ſufficiently raiſed by the Conduct of theſe Barbarians, or that you continue indifferent Spectators of their Tranſactions. That ſuch a Suſpicion would be groundleſs, and moſt unjuſt, I am confident; and flatter myſelf, that you will let nothing, at this Time, divert you from providing againſt their Incurſions for the future, and for the Services that I have now recommended to your Conſideration.

Gentlemen, As the Reaſons that induced you, at your laſt Meeting, to make an Act for preventing Warlike Stores and Proviſions being carried from this Province, to our Enemies, ſtill ſubſiſt, you will, I doubt not, think proper to revive it; leſt any ill-diſpoſed Perſons ſhould have taken Advantage of that Act's expiring, before I could give you an Opportunity of continuing it, I ordered the Naval Officers to take of ſuch Perſons, as ſhould export Proviſions or Warlike Stores, Security for their being landed at ſome Port or Place within his Majeſty's Dominions, as was directed by that Law, and as is done in all the neighbouring Colonies. As this Step was expedient and neceſſary, I hope it will meet with your Approbation.

I beg Leave to mention once more the Inſufficiency of our Laws to oblige the Service of any one in Defence of their Country, hoping that you will take the ſame under your Conſideration; and as our Safety at this Seaſon, muſt, in a great Meaſure, depend on the Militia's being well armed, diſciplined, and under proper Regulations, that you will ſupply the Defects of the Militia Laws at preſent in Force, with ſuch an Act as the Situation of Affairs at this Juncture calls for and requires.

From the Weſtminſter Journal, October 18, 1755.

To THOMAS TOUCHIT, Eſq;

GOOD unexpected, EVIL unforeſeen,
Appear by Turns, as FORTUNE ſhifts the Scene;
Some rais'd aloft, come tumbling down amain;
Then fall ſo hard, they bound, and riſe again.

DRYDEN.

SIR,

WHEN I found you had granted me the Favour of inſerting my former Bit of Scribble, I was reſolved to take the Advantage of your Condeſcention, and to follow cloſe at the Heels of that with another; whereupon I immediately ſet Pen to Paper; but when I had ſo done, ſplit my Pericranium! if one agreeable Object preſented itſelf, worthy my waſting Time, Ink and Paper about; every Thing around me was ſtrange, every Thing amazing, every Thing in a continual Fluctuation. Neither was this Hubble bubble, this which none know what to make of, confined to our Home only; or, may I not ſay, it was not at our Home at all? But looking Abroad, all was thus, and Confuſion, at leaſt in Appearance, reigneth every where.

One While the French Armies are encamped, and in a very ſmall Seaſon are returned to their Cantonments, and as ſuddenly are re-encamped.

For a few Moments the Dutch are ſtrengthening their Frontiers, and preſently after they are doing of nothing.---Now they are liſtening to the Advice of ſuch as pay ſome Regard to thoſe who have been, and muſt be, ſo long as they have any Exiſtence, their Protectors; are reſolved to put their Marine in a reſpectable Condition, and to augment their Troops, ſo as to make them worthy of ſome ſmall Notice; and in a Trice, they liſten to the Inſinuations of France, and are reſolved, at all Events, to ſkreen themſelves under the deceitful Banner of a Neutrality.----No Stadtholder! cry theſe People; they are all Princes; and if they muſt follow the Directions of one in Chief, they chuſe to ſubmit to be diſpoſed of, as Louis le Grand, le Merciful, ſhall judge moſt proper.

Sometimes the Houſe of Auſtria is under dreadful Apprehenſions for the Low Countries, and is about diſpatching away her Troops for their Defence; and anon, the Empreſs Queen is entirely eaſy, relying upon the Faith of Treaties, and believing that the Heart of her dear Brother, the moſt Chriſtian King, is rightly ſet, and is moved by Equity, even as her Heart is.

France, by one Pacquet of Intelligence, is ſaid to caſt an evil Eye towards Oſtend and Bruges; but by that which arrives immediately upon the Back of this, we find, that ſhe is bent upon diſturbing the Repoſe of Lombardy; then again, all is well, and ſhe hath no View, but how to preſerve PEACE to the World.

By one Poſt, it is inſinuated, that Hanover is in a Kind of Dread, and that a ſtrong Tremor hath ſeized the very Soul of her; and by the next, we are aſſured, ſhe hath Troops enow, and that theſe have ſuch an uncommon Fluſh of Spirits, as renders them ſufficient to protect her againſt the utmoſt Efforts of the French.---And preſently after this, we are given to underſtand, that betwixt three and fourſcore Thouſand Ruſſians are to dart from towards the Northern Pole, ſwift as Lightning, to ſave——Britannia, I ſuppoſe I ought to ſay. Then comes forth the Trumpet of the Balance-Maſter-General, and in a moſt extraordinary Manner, ſounds a Charge to all the World; and declares with an Echo, that is to be heard every where, he is determined to keep the Equilibrium in his own Poſſeſſion.

Account upon Account we have lately had, of the Spaniſh Monarch's determining, that he will not intermeddle betwixt us and the French, more, than as his good Offices may bring about an Accommodation. But laſt of all, it is ſaid of him, that he knows not what to think of the prodigious Armaments which we are making.---Some ſuppoſe his Meaning is, that we do not make a better Uſe of them.

As to the Britiſh Affairs in particular, whether at Home, upon the Ocean, or in America, what ſhall I ſay of them? Why, in ſhort, I will ſet the good old Proverb on my Side, and let that ſpeak for me, viz. When thou canſt not ſpeak well of thy NEIGHBOUR, ſay nothing of him. And yet I will venture, by your Leave, 'Squire Touchit, to ſhew to the World Sir Benjamin Keene's Reply, given at the Court of Spain, to all the bombaſtic Ribaldry, and falſe Suggeſtions of the French Court; which was as follows:

"That it was well known, the French Fleet was carrying Troops, Stores, and all Things neceſſary for defending the invaded Poſſeſſions and Territories which England claimed as her Property; that the ſimple Rules of natural Defence authorized every one to defeat the Means employed to moleſt or to injure them; that the Engliſh did nothing but make Uſe of this Right in taking the two French Men of War that fell in with Admiral Boſcawen's Squadron; and that the Diſtinction of Place, if it was of any Weight in this Caſe, could be applied only in Favour of England, ſince thoſe Ships were taken in the Seas, and on the Coaſt of Countries, that have given Riſe to the Diſputes betwixt the two Powers." This was Reaſoning, and ſuch as I think admits of no Contradiction. After the foregoing, Sir Benjamin Keene is ſaid to have renewed the Declaration, which he had more than once made, viz. "That the King his Maſter, ſincerely wiſhed for Peace; but ſuch a Peace as ſhould ſettle the Rights of the Britiſh Nation in a juſt and equitable Manner; but that he did not mean to purchaſe the bare Name of Peace, by ſacrificing his Rights, and thoſe of his People, as his ſaid Majeſty was pleaſed to explain himſelf, in the laſt Speech to the Parliament."

This evinces to the World, that Great-Britain requires nothing more than a maintaining of her juſt Rights; and it is the hearty Deſire of every Lover of our Country, that all thoſe in Authority under our Gracious Sovereign, exert themſelves in ſuch a Manner, that his Majeſty's Intention be not fruſtrated, but that the royal Promiſe be moſt punctually performed.

I am, believe me, Sir, in the Sincerity of my Heart,
GREAT-BRITAIN's Well-wiſher,
Oct. 1, 1755. JACK QUIBUS.

HAGUE, November 20.

A LONG Letter, in very good French, has been publiſhed in our Gazettes, dated from Dunkirk, in which it is admitted, that new Works have been raiſed, the Riſbank repaired, Batteries conſtructed, a new Aqueduct made, and ſome decaying Works rebuilt; notwithſtanding which it is hoped, that the Engliſh and Dutch will be ſo juſt as to allow that theſe are no Fortifications. If you aſk what they are then? the Anſwer is, proper Precautions againſt the Invaſion with which they are threatned from Great-Britain.

LONDON,

Nov. 20. We are aſſured that the Right Hon. the Earl of Egmont, is appointed Pay-Maſter of the Forces, in the Room of the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt.

Nov. 25. It is ſaid, that an able Civilian has found out a Precedent to condemn both Ships and Cargoes in the Commons, which, if true, will give high Spirits to the Officers and Seamen belonging to the Royal Navy, as well as to Victuallers, Alehouſe-keepers, Wapping Landladies, Buyers of Seamens Wages, Prize Money, and many &c's.

The Account of the dreadful Earthquake at Liſbon is variouſly reported; ſome ſay 100,000 of the Inhabitants bitants have periſhed, others 60,000 ; that two Thirds of the City is ſwallowed up, and others one Half.

The above News arriving Yeſterday about Change-Time, it ſtruck ſuch a general Panic, that the Merchants immediately withdrew, the Change ſhut up, and no Buſineſs tranſacted ; and a Club of Liſbon Merchants, who have been accuſtomed to meet at the Fountain Tavern in Bartholomew Lane, had not one Perſon that attended.

At a Court of Common Council held this Day, a Motion was made to petition the Parliament for a general National Militia; and the Queſtion being put, the Majority was declared for the Queſtion ; but a Diviſion being moved for, there appeared to be, for the Queſtion 66, againſt it 86.

We hear the Right Hon. the Earl of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Norfolk, has given Orders for the Militia of that County to be raiſed. And,

'Tis thought, that all the Counties which border upon the Sea Coaſts, will alſo have Orders for the Raiſing their Militia directly.

Nov. 27. We hear the Land-tax will be Four Shillings in the Pound for the enſuing Year.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Nov. 10.

" The Orders given to the Duke de Nivernois, and M. d'Affry, to hold themſelves ready to ſet out for Berlin and the Hague, gives Ground to think that we are not diſpoſed to grant the Engliſh their Demands.

M. de Folard, whoſe Journey to Munich has been put off for upwards of ſix Months, is alſo going to ſet off immediately, ſo that we ſhall have twelve Miniſters with the Princes of the Empire, viz. two at Cologn, two at Berlin, one at Dreſden, Coblents, Stutgard, Ratiſbon, Vienna, Manheim, Munich, and Leige, without reckoning our Emiſſaries at other Courts.

Orders are given to put all the Coaſt from Dunkirk to Bayonne in a proper Poſture of Defence, and to diſtribute Arms to the Garde de Cote Militia. Notwithſtanding the preſent Eaſt-India Sale at Port l'Orient, our Actions are in a languiſhing Way."

His Catholic Majeſty, upon receiving an Expreſs from his Brother-in-law the King of Portugal, acquainting him with his diſtreſſed Circumſtances, immediately ſent away 100,000 Piſtoles for his preſent Relief, and gave Orders to ſupply his Court with every Thing elſe that ſhould be wanted.

Kingſton, in Jamaica, November 29.

A few Days ago arrived Captain Nehemiah Holland, in the Ship Lime, from Old Callabar, by whom we have Advice of a Pyrate's being upon that Coaſt, that the Captain of the Pyrate, with two of his Men, came on board Captain Holland, to trade ; upon which Captain Holland gave Orders for them to be ſecured, and brought them ſafe into this Harbour. The Captain of the Pyrate has ſince turn'd the King's Evidence.

January 3. Admiral Townſhend is daily expected here with three Ships of the Line ; and in Caſe of a Declaration of War, Admiral Smith will be diſpatched here with a large Squadron.

Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, Feb. 5.

Two Parties of the French Neutrals have already attempted to make their Eſcape from this Town, by travelling towards the Northward, but have been retaken and brought back ; one of them, we hear, had gone as high as Monck's Corner, but the other no farther than Gooſe Creek Bridge.

Captain Bolitho, who arrived here laſt Tueſday Evening from Barbados, we hear made his Paſſage in ten Days.

A Private Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in this Town, dated November 28th, ſays, That we are likely to be deprived of Mr. Lyttleton, as our Governor ; for that he was (that Day) told, from good Authority, that Col. Haldane would be appointed, and Mr. Lyttleton have the Government of Barbados.

Feb. 12. Tho' two Parties of Acadians, who attempted to make their Eſcape from this Town, have been retaken and brought back, we hear there are ſtill thirty of the Men miſſing. And we have juſt received an Account, that five or ſix of them, on the third Inſtant, went to the Plantation of Mr. John Williams, junior, at Santee, while he was from Home, terrified his Wife very much, robbed the Houſe of Fire Arms and Clothes, and broke open a Box, out of which they took ſome Money, &c. and that the Neighbourhood, having gone in Queſt of them as ſoon as they were informed of this Tranſaction, had track'd them into the River Swamp.——As it is apprehended to be the Duty of every Civil and Military Officer throughout the Province (as it is indeed of every Inhabitant) to prevent ſuch Outrages, &c. &c. 'tis hoped theſe Acadians will not be ſuffered to commit any more Robberies, or even to appear beyond the Limits preſcribed them.

We hear that more French Captures have been carried into Jamaica, and St. Kitts, ſince thoſe we have lately mentioned.

By Letters from Antigua, we are informed, that on the 19th ult. the Snow Edward, Capt. Cook, bound for Connecticut, with 260 Acadians (commonly called French Neutrals) on board, and on the 22d the Brig Experiment, Capt. Stoddard, bound for New York, with 200 more of thoſe People, had put in there ; having then been out ſix Weeks from Nova-Scotia, met with very bad Weather, and beat off the Northern Coaſts.

HALIFAX, January 24.

Laſt Friday another Party of the American Troops, conſiſting of 120 Men, arrived here from Minas and Piſguit, with whom came Lieutenants Crocker and Fitch, who inform, that they, with eight of their Men, being upon the Beach at Minas juſt upon the Flood, and hearing the Bore coming in, they made all poſſible Diſpatch to the Shore to ſave themſelves, notwithſtanding which five of the eight Men were drowned, the reſt narrowly eſcaped.

BOSTON, February 23.

They write from Halifax, that they are about, as far as the Seaſon will admit, three new Forts, with Barracks, viz. one Barrack on the Citadel-Hill, which is to be 365 Feet long, and 35 wide, of two Stories, which Hill and Barrack is to be walled in the Circumference of the whole Hill, which is very large, and to be mounted with a great Number of Cannon, which will command not only the whole Town, but alſo as far as Cannon Ball will reach back into the Woods ; ſo that 20,000 Men could not come to do it any Damage, as the Hill is very ſteep, and 'tis look'd upon to be impracticable to raiſe a Bomb-battery ſo near as to reach it. Another Fort and Barrack is to be erected on the Wind mill-Hill (ſo called) about Half a Mile to the Southward of it, but of ſmaller Dimenſions. And a third at a Place called Pleaſant Point, at the North-ſide of the Northweſt Arm, ſo called.

By Captain Knox from Halifax we are informed, that the Day he ſailed, an Account came in from Chignecto, that one of the French Inhabitants having come to the Engliſh Fort there, and informed that about 300 French and Indians were near, and intended to cut off the Engliſh Wood-cutter, Lieutenant Colonel Scott, with about 300 of the Provincial Troops, went in Queſt of them, and having been out a Day and Night without diſcovering the Enemy, he concluded the Deſerter had deceived him, and was returning to the Fort ; but on his Way back, the Enemy came upon his Rear, upon which he faced about, and firing, killed eight Indians on the Spot, and put the reſt to Flight, many of whom were doubtleſs wounded, as much Blood was found in their Tracks, upon the Purſuit. We dont't hear that any of our People were killed or taken. Two Frenchmen were taken Priſoners, and brought to Halifax the Day Captain Knox left that Place.

We hear that laſt Monday Matthew Cox, of Cambridge, being pruning his Orchard, fell from a Tree, and died immediately. He has left a ſorrowful Widow, and eight Children, and ſhe in daily Expectation of increaſing the Number of the Fatherleſs.

NEW-HAVEN, February 21.

We hear from Albany by the Poſt, that about the Third or Fourth of this Inſtant, one Mr. John Norton of Farmington, who has a Son-in-law in the Army, was going to ſee him at Fort Edward, and not chuſing to travel ſo ſlow as Major Matthews, who was eſcorting ſome Proviſions to the Fort ; contrary to his Advice, left him, and went forward alone ; and it is ſuppoſed fell into the Enemy's Hands, as he has not ſince been heard of, and the Track of his Horſe was followed ten Miles, and tended directly towards Crown-Point.

NEW-YORK, March 1.

The Report laſt Week of Captain Rogers taking nine French Priſoners near Crown-Point, proves partly premature ; for by the Albany Poſt, and other good Intelligence, we are aſſured that only one Priſoner has been taken. The beſt Account we can learn is this ; That Captain Rogers, ever active and vigilant againſt the Enemy, went out, a few Days ago, with a ſcouting Party of about 50 Men, and advanced within Sight of the Fort at Crown-Point, into which all the Inhabitants, except the one which he made Priſoner, immediately fled ; whereupon Captain Rogers ſet Fire to nine Houſes and Barracks, and then returned in Safety to the Engliſh Fort.

We hear that the General Aſſembly of this Province, have voted 125 Spaniſh Dollars, to be ſent to the above-mentioned Captain Rogers, for the Services done to his Country in ſeveral late Excurſions againſt the French and their Indians, near Crown-Point. We hope the neighbouring Governments will follow an Example ſo truly worthy of Imitation, and reward only thoſe whoſe Actions may deſerve it.

Friday and Saturday laſt, upwards of 400 Recruits arrived here from the Weſtward, for the different Regiments now poſted at Albany, Schenectady, &c.

We are credibly informed, that there was not leſs than 500 Indians at the late Meeting at Mount Johnſon, in the Mohawks Country ; and that many of them belonged to Tribes, none of which ever attended at a Treaty with the Engliſh before. 'Tis ſaid they were in a fine Humour, and that Sir William Johnſon, Baronet, was uſing his beſt Endeavours to bring over ſeveral of them to the Engliſh Intereſt.

By ſome People who arrived here on Saturday laſt from Eſopus and Goſhen, we are informed, That the Tueſday before, a Party of ten Men that were helping Capt. Harteil up with Goods to the Houſe wherein Philip Swartwout lately lived, 20 Miles from Goſhen, eight of them were ſurprized as they were at Dinner (the other two being gone to the Mill) by a large Body of Indians : Our People defended themſelves for ſome Time ; but they were ſoon obliged to abandon the Houſe (the Indians having ſet it on Fire) and ſhift for themſelves. Five of the Men were killed, and a white Woman taken Priſoner ; the other three happily ſaved their Lives by out-running the Enemy. As ſoon as the Indians appeared, an old Negro Wench that was in the Houſe, concealed herſelf in a Cellar Kitchen, until the Fray was over, and afterwards got to the Bank of a River, until a Number of white People came from a neighbouring Plantation. The old Wench ſaid ſhe knew ſeveral of the Indians, and that there were two white Men among them.

Col. Gale, who left Orange County on Thurſday laſt, ſays, that on Receipt of the above News at Goſhen, 25 of the Rangers were immediately diſpatched to the Relief of the Diſtreſſed ; but were adviſed by thoſe that eſcaped, not to purſue (altho' at the ſame Time they ſaw a Fire at a few Miles Diſtance) for they imagined there were between 60 and 100 Indians, with ſome white Men. The Col. farther adds, as his Opinion, That when the Woods come to be cloathed with Leaves, the weſtern Parts of Ulſter and Orange Counties will be made deſolate by the Savages, unleſs ſome more effectual Means are made uſe of to protect the Frontiers.

The Eighteenth of laſt Month a Proclamation was iſſued at Boſton by his Excellency General Shirley, declaring, that whereas the Government of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, New-York, and Connecticut, being apprehenſive of the great Danger to which His Majeſty's Colonies are ſtill expoſed, by Means of the Encroachments of the French on His Majeſty's Lands on this Continent, and of the abſolute Neceſſity there is of a vigorous and ſpeedy Proſecution of all proper Methods for ſtopping the Progreſs of the French in their Invaſions of His Majeſty's Territories, and diſtreſſing His good Subjects in North-America, and for recovering out of their Hands thoſe Places they have unjuſtly invaded ; more eſpecially, ſuch as are upon or near the Lake Iroquois, commonly called Lake Champlain ; have, in Proſpect of the other Governments joining with them herein, agreed to raiſe ſuch a Number of Forces for proſecuting this Deſign, as they judge may, by the Bleſſing of God, prove effectual for theſe Ends. Therefore the Government of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay ſet forth the following Articles, viz.

That there be granted to each able bodied and effective Man, that ſhall inliſt, before the 20th day of March next, a Bounty or Encouragement of 6 Dollars, and a Blanket. That ſuch Men who were in the laſt Expedition, and ſhall enliſt anew, ſhall be allowed half Wages from the 17th day of December, when the Pay of the laſt Army ceaſed, over and above the Encouragement aforeſaid. That the ſame Wages be allowed to the Officers and Men, as in the laſt Expedition : That Half a Dollar for each Man be allowed to the Officers for the Expence and Trouble of Enliſting ; and that ſuch Officers and Soldiers as ſhall proceed in the ſaid Expedition, ſhall not be taxed for their Polls the preſent Year. And, That they ſhall not be compelled to march Southward of Albany, or Weſtward of Schenectady, and ſhall be diſcharged as ſoon as the Expedition ſhall be finiſhed ; or at furtheſt within a Year after the Enliſtment.---And Governor Shirley promiſes in Behalf of his Majeſty's Province of the Maſſachuſetts Bay, that there ſhall be a full Compliance with all and every the Articles aforeſaid.

PHILADELPHIA, March 4.

Saturday laſt the FIELD-OFFICERS of the PHILADELPHIA REGIMENT, choſen in Purſuance of the Militia Law, and duly commiſſioned by his Honour the Governor, reviewed the Regiment in the Statehouſe Square, where they were drawn up under Arms, and made a fine Appearance. In their March thro' the City, the Regiment halted before the Academy, in order to receive ſome Propoſitions the Inhabitants were invited to hear, for Improvement of our military Affairs ; but were diſappointed ; the Propoſers having too precipitately pocketed up their Papers, and diſperſed themſelves. They have, however, ſent the following Account of their Proceedings to be publiſhed in this Paper, viz.

On Saturday laſt, a conſiderable Number of the Inhabitants of this City met at the Academy, to conſult upon ſome Expedient for rendering the Uſe of Arms more univerſal, and the Province more ſecure, in the preſent perilous Situation of Affairs, by bringing thoſe to learn the Military Exerciſe, who do not chuſe to act as a MILITIA under the preſent Law. The following Plan of ASSOCIATION was accordingly agreed upon, and ſubſcribed under the three ſeveral Heads of HORSE-EXERCISE, FOOT-EXERCISE, and the ARTILLERY-EXERCISE, belonging to the old Aſſociation Battery.

An ASSOCIATION for promoting Military Diſcipline among the Freemen of Pennſylvania, who are not WILLING and DESIROUS to act under the preſent Militia Law.

WHEREAS the weak and defenceleſs State of this Province, has long been Matter of juſt and real Concern to every thinking Perſon among us, eſpecially ſince the Commencement of the late unjuſtifiable Encroachments of the French and their Savage Allies ; And whereas a War between the Engliſh and French Nations ſeems at preſent unavoidable, which will expoſe this rich and flouriſhing City to Invaſions from Sea, and the other Parts of the Province to cruel Ravages by Land, if proper Meaſures of Security are not ſpeedily concerted ; And whereas but few of the People ſeem inclined to muſter under the preſent Militia Law, and to put themſelves under Officers that propoſe to act in Purſuance of that Law ; And whereas it is nevertheleſs abſolutely neceſſary and expedient that thoſe who are ſcrupulous in this Reſpect, ſhould have an Opportunity of acquiring the Military Exerciſe, in a Manner agreeable to themſelves, provided it be not repugnant to any poſitive Inſtitution of their Country.---Wherefore, we the Subſcribers, Freemen of the City and County of Philadelphia, enter into this VOLUNTARY ASSOCIATION for accompliſhing ourſelves in Military Diſcipline, that we may be ready to appear in the Service of our Country whenever we are neceſſarily called thereto. And that there may be nothing to create Uneaſineſſes among us, nor to interrupt our Deſign of acquiring the Military Exerciſe, the following are declared to be the fundamental Articles, and eſſential Principles of this ASSOCIATION, viz.

1. That we will remain entirely INDEPENDENT of the preſent Militia Law, in every Shape and Senſe. For, as we cannot believe that the Law will ever anſwer the Purpoſes of Defence, and, if it were carried into Execution (which we ſcarce think practicable) would leave the People of this Province on a very unequal Footing, ſo we cannot think it expedient to act under a Law which we muſt neceſſarily diſapprove of, eſpecially as every Individual is, by the Law itſelf, left to his own free Choice, either to act under it, or not. And as we do not blame thoſe who think proper to purſue a different Plan from ours, and charitably believe that many of them may do ſo from a very laudable Motive ; ſo we hope they will grant us the ſame Indulgence, and allow us an equal Right of following our own Judgment, in Matters where we are equally concerned and free.

2. That we will be under ſuch Officers, as we ſhall chuſe, and his Honour the Governor ſhall be pleaſed to commiſſion, for the Troop or Company to which we reſpectively ſet our Names. That we will aſſociate with Capt. Vanderſpeigle's, and any other Independent Companies, ſo as to be afterwards formed into one or more Regiment, or Regiments, under ſuch Field Officers as the ſeveral Captains, Lieutenants and Enſigns (thus commiſſioned and aſſociated) ſhall chuſe, and his Honour the Governor be pleaſed to commiſſion, for that Purpoſe. But ſuch Officers ſhall have no Power to lead us to any Duty or Service without our own Conſent, unleſs a proper Militia Law is firſt obtained, equally binding on all his Majeſty's Subjects of this Province, who being equally free, are therefore intitled to equal Privileges and Immunities.

Philadelphia, Feb. 28, 1756.

This Plan of Aſſociation having been offered to my Conſideration, by ſeveral Gentlemen of this City, I think it neceſſary to ſignify my Approbation of it, as an Expedient that will contribute to the publick Safety, by promoting Military Diſcipline among thoſe who do not chuſe to act under the preſent Law.

Philadelphia, Feb. 25, 1756. ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS.

QUERIES on the above.

1. Whether when the whole City is invited to a Meeting on any Project, and ſcarce Fifty get together to countenance it, they are more properly called a conſiderable than an inconſiderable Number ?

2. Whether keeping up a Clamour of the weak and defenceleſs State of the Province, after Sixty Thouſand Pounds has been granted and appropriated for its Defence, and ſo many Forts built on the Frontier, and Troops taken into Pay ; has any Meaning in it, and what that Meaning can be ?

3. Whether repreſenting this City in publick Papers, as being at the ſame time, both rich and defenceleſs, is leaſt agreeable to Truth or to Prudence, the Way to deter, or invite an Enemy ?

4. Whether a Regiment of Militia, well trained, conſiſting of near 1000 Men, 50 Pieces of Cannon, and a ſtrong Battery, are to be looked upon as nothing towards the Defence of ſuch a Place as this ?

5. Whether the Appearance of ſuch a Regiment under Arms, at three or four Hours Warning, be not a full Proof, that the Aſſertion in the above Paper, viz. " few of the People ſeem inclined " to muſter under the preſent Militia Law," is an egregious Miſtake ?

6. Whether it was not proper to ſhew our Military Projectors (ſince they ſeemed ignorant of it) that there was ſuch a Regiment in Being ; for ſo, by knowing how much was done, they might be better able to judge what was wanting ?

7. Whether inviting a Number of People to a Conſultation, and ſhutting the Doors in their Faces, as ſoon as they appear, be a Compliment or an Affront ?

8. By whoſe Order was this done, and what Right had HE to order it ?

9. Are not our Laws fram'd by Aſſemblies of our own chuſing ?

10. Did the Governor propoſe any Amendment to our Militia Law, before he paſſed it ?

11. Have the People petitioned the Aſſembly for any Amendment to that Law, and been refuſed ?

12. Could not theſe Projectors have met and exerciſed themſelves in the Uſe of Arms, without affronting in expreſs Terms the Laws and Legiſlature of their Country ?

13. May not the Military Exerciſe as well be learnt under the Sanction of the Law as without it ?

practicable or impracticable, will or will not answer its Purpose? And if, on such Trial, it be found defective; would not the actual Experiment made, give more Weight to an Application for Amendment?

15. And would not that Weight be still greater, the more generally the Experiment was made?

16. Do those good Men who have generously taken up Arms for the Defence of their Country, and the Officers that have taken so much Pains to discipline them, deserve, for so doing, to be discountenanced, and meet with every Kind of Discouragement and Obstacle that Power and Party Views can throw in their Way?

17. If the Projectors intend nothing but the Use of their own Liberty, in learning the Exercise of Arms, can they not enjoy that Liberty, without endeavouring to divide and break the Force already formed under Sanction of the Law; and without soliciting the People to sign an Engagement, not to act under the Law; thereby restraining them in the Liberty they have of acting under the Law if they should chuse it?

18. Whether Union be not very necessary to us all at this Juncture?

19. Whether dividing us is the Way to unite us?

20. Whether an Association and solemn Agreement, not to be obliged "to do any Duty or Service," be not a very droll Kind of an Association; and copied from Poet Bayes, in the Play called the Rehearsal, viz.

"Johnson, Do! why, fight, I suppose.
"Bayes, See how you are mistaken now! I would as soon make them dance. No, egad, Sir, I make them do--------no earthly Thing."

By Captain Cobourn from Jamaica, there is Advice, that the Captains Lownes, Knox, Morrell, M'Clelland, Riddall, and Lake, are safe arrived there from this Port: And that His Majesty's Ships of War on that Station, have taken about 20 Sail of French Vessels, very valuable, the greatest Part of them being Guiney Men.

Captain White is arrived at Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, from this Place; as is Captain Bolitho from Barbados, and Captain Groves from Antigua, both belonging here.

We hear that 8 Men, 5 of whom had formerly deserted from the French, and are either Frenchmen, or Germans that speak French, have deserted from the Regulars quarter'd at Easton. The Country is desired to look out sharp for them, and endeavour to apprehend them.

N. B. It is expected that this Subſcription will ſoon be conſiderably increaſed.

The PRECEPTS of that great Athenian Orator and Moral Philoſopher, ISOCRATES, to his Friend DEMONICUS.

ALWAYS honour the Gods, that you may not only be eſteemed devout, but likewiſe obedient to the Laws.

Behave yourſelf ſo to your Parents, as you would have your Children do to you, when you ſhall have any.

Exerciſe your Body frequently, that you may thereby become robuſt and healthy.

Be not immoderate in Mirth, nor over-forward in Talking, the one proceeding from Folly, and the other from Preſumption.

What is improper to be done, do you eſteem improper to be ſaid.

Do not put on a melancholy Air, for fear Men take it for a Token of Ignorance.

Do not think to conceal an ill Act, for tho' no Body ſhould come to know it otherwiſe, yet will your Conſcience diſcover it in your Face.

Fear the Gods, honour your Parents, reſpect your Friends, and obey the Laws.

Partake only of virtuous Recreations, for as theſe divert, the contrary hurt.

Avoid giving Occaſion for Calumny, if poſſible, tho' never ſo improbable, becauſe the Majority of Men, not knowing the Truth, are apt to be governed by Opinion.

Do every Thing as if every Body ſaw you, for tho' you have a Mind to conceal any Thing, yet will it at length come to be known.

You will always be valued, if you do nothing that you ſhould blame in others.

It is a diſcommendable Thing to refuſe Inſtruction, as a Preſent from a Friend.

Employ your Time in improving yourſelf by other Mens Documents; ſo ſhall you come eaſily by what others have laboured hard for.

Prefer Knowledge to Wealth, for the one is tranſitory, and the other perpetual.

Do not grudge travelling into diſtant Countries for Knowledge, when the Merchant does the like after Gain.

Be affable in your Addreſs, and inoffenſive in your Behaviour.

Be courteous to every one, but converſe chiefly with good Men; ſo ſhall you fruſtrate the Calumnies of the Bad, and acquire the Favour of the Good.

Do not always keep Company with the ſame Perſons, nor diſcourſe ſtill on the ſame Subject, for the beſt Things at length grow tedious.

Accuſtom yourſelf to bear with Misfortunes, that you may be able to do ſo when you are obliged to it.

Be more careful of keeping your Word than your Money, it being not a little commendable for a Man to behave himſelf ſo, that he may be truſted as much on Account of his Honeſty as his Bond.

Tell your Secret to no Body, unleſs where it is as beneficial to him that hears it, as to you that diſcover it.

Never engage in Friendſhip with any one, till you know how he has dealt by his other Friends.

Do not be over-haſty in declaring yourſelf a Friend, but when you have once done ſo, perſevere in your Friendſhip, for it is equally as unreputable to change one's Friends often, as to have none at all.

To make Trial of your Friends communicate to them what you would have divulged, for if they reveal that, no Damage will accrue to you, and if they conceal it, you have the Satisfaction you deſired.

Always prevent your Friends Neceſſities, by ſupplying them before they ſhall aſk.

Eſteem it no leſs a Misfortune to be out done by your Friends Benefits, than your Enemies Injuries.

Admit into your Friendſhip not only thoſe that lament your Adverſity, but likewiſe thoſe that envy your Proſperity, becauſe the former many Times turn to the latter.

Talk often of your abſent Friends in Company of thoſe that are preſent; to the End they may think they ſhall be well ſpoken of upon the ſame Occaſion.

Not only endeavour to get Riches, but to enjoy them when you have done, for in the former Caſe you will have the Pleaſure of heaping them up, and in the latter of uſing them.

Never torment yourſelf at repining at your Condition, be it what it will; but rather do all you can to better it.

Never reproach any Man's Misfortune, becauſe Fortune is common to us all, and no Body knows what he may come to.

Always relieve good Men; but he that is charitable to the Bad, beſtows Favours upon Dogs, that will bark even at their Benefactors.

Be not grave in ſlight Matters, nor ſlight in grave, becauſe all that is out of Seaſon is impertinent.

Be careful how you behave yourſelf in Drink, and always riſe before you are fuddled; for when the Mind is once overcharged with Wine, it is like a Horſe that overthrows its Rider.

When you have a Mind to gain any Man's Friendſhip, ſpeak well of him, to the End it may come to his Hearing.

The Beginning of Friendſhip is Praiſe, and of Enmity Detraction.

When you are about to do any Thing, have Regard to what's paſt, which will give you a great Light into what's to come.

Be not over-haſty in your Deliberations; but when you have once determined a Thing, be ſure to perſevere in it.

Happineſs is the greateſt Bleſſing that can come from Heaven, and good Counſel that which comes from ourſelves.

When you have not Courage to begin an Attempt, conſer firſt with your Friend in the third Perſon, ſo ſhall you have his Opinion, without diſcovering yourſelf.

When you are determined to adviſe with any one, about doing any Thing, conſider firſt how he has behaved himſelf in his own Affairs, for it is unlikely he will be able to counſel you well, when he could not do ſo to himſelf.

Nothing can ſpur a Man on more to take Care of himſelf, than the Conſideration of Loſſes he has ſuſtained by his Indiſcretion, for we ſhould not be ſo deſirous of Health, were it not for the Incommodities of Sickneſs.

Always conform to the Manners of your Prince, whereby you will ſecure his Favour, and conſequently have greater Authority with the People.

When you ſhall be promoted to any Poſt, never adviſe with bad Men, that are your Inferiors, for if you do, you will be ſure to bear all the Blame of their Counſel.

Lay down a publick Charge, rather with Reputation than Riches; ever conſidering, that a good Name is at all Times preferable to a good Eſtate.

Endeavour to get a Superiority, and yet content yourſelf with an Equality.

It is better to be a poor good Man, than a rich Knave; for Riches are only of Uſe to the Living; and Virtue is of much greater Service to the Dead.

Do not envy thoſe that enrich themſelves unlawfully, but rather thoſe that ruin themſelves by doing Good; for tho' theſe laſt have nothing elſe to rely upon, yet will they ſtill have virtuous Hopes.

Enure your Body to Labour, and your Mind to Thought; ſo ſhall you be able to effect whatever you undertake, and to foreſee what will be moſt beneficial to you.

Conſider well what you have to do, becauſe oftentimes the Tongue foreſtalls the Mind.

Reflect that there is nothing permanent in this World; and then you will never be overjoyed at Proſperity, nor dejected in Adverſity.

Take only two Occaſions of ſpeaking, either of thoſe Things you are well acquainted with, or of thoſe you ſtand in Need of; for of all others, it is for the moſt Part better to hold one's Tongue, than to talk.

Enjoy good Things moderately, and bear with bad patiently.

Endeavour to be as ſecret as you can, for it would be abſurd to keep your Money locked up, and let every Body know your Intentions.

Ever apprehend Reproach more than Danger.

Death is a frightful Thing to wicked Men, but the Virtuous need only ſtand in Awe of Diſhonour and Ignominy.

Live always as ſecurely as you can; but if Honour calls you to riſque your Life, it is better to fight bravely, than to avoid it ſhamefully, eſpecially conſidering we are all born to die, and virtuous People have only the Privilege to die well.

Do not wonder, dear Demonicus, that many of the foregoing Precepts ſuit not with your Years. I at firſt determined not only to counſel you for the preſent, but to leave you Inſtructions for the future, which I doubt not you will ſoon be able to reliſh. Not being willing that you ſhould have Recourſe to any other Maſter, I took Care to inſert at once all that I thought might be uſeful to you. Tho' Youth, like ſick People, be generally apt to deſire what is hurtful for them, yet I thank the Gods, I have Reaſon to conceive another Opinion of you. I can eaſily perceive by your Studies, what your future Life will be, for he that ſo early can apply himſelf to Virtue, muſt of Conſequence delight in the Rules that lead him to it. There's no better Incentive to commendable Actions, than Conſideration of what Content they bring; whereas, on the contrary, Sloth and Luxury both tire and diſguſt us. Virtue alone can occaſion a durable Delight. I cannot ſay, but that Vice has its Pleaſure in the Beginning, yet Grief and Repentance ſoon ſucceed, and what at firſt was a Satisfaction becomes, at laſt, a Torment. In all Affairs of this Life we have more Regard to the End, than Beginning, and judge of every Thing by its Event. You may alſo conſider, that wicked Men have no Conſtancy in their Proceedings, whereas virtuous Perſons cannot alter their Courſe without expoſing themſelves to the greateſt Infamy, for what is looked upon as unnatural in the former, will be reputed monſtrous in the latter. If we blame Liars for uttering Falſities, much greater Reaſon have we to do thoſe that have all their Manners irregular, for they not only do Injury to themſelves, but likewiſe prove ungrateful to Fortune, who has bleſſed them with Riches and Honour. Moreover, if we have Regard to the immortal Gods, we may ſee what Difference they have always put between Virtue and Vice. Jupiter, that begot both Hercules and Tantalus, raiſed the one to Immortality for his Virtue, and ſeverely puniſhed the other for his Wickedneſs. Theſe Examples muſt needs induce us to abhor Vice, and love Virtue. To conclude therefore, dear Demonicus, I do not deſire you ſhould confine yourſelf wholly to my Precepts: You have many great Poets that will inſtruct you how to live; and as the Bee flies from Flower to Flower, and takes from each what is proper for its Purpoſe, ſo do I adviſe you to inſpect all the Manners and Writings of Mankind, to form the Conduct of your Life. Farewel.

From the London Daily Advertiſer.

THE greateſt Navy France ever had, conſiſted of 115 Capital Ships, carrying 7080 Guns. In the laſt War we had in Commiſſion above 10,000 Guns; and our Navy at preſent is near double of that of the French. Surely, if this naval Superiority of Power and Strength be well conducted, and honeſtly exerted, it is ſufficient to deſtroy all the foreign Commerce of France, and to drive thoſe Sons of Violence out of the commercial World, who refuſe to live peaceably in it. What Sovereign Power in Chriſtendom would be ſorry to ſee this turbulent turbulent, reſtleſs, ambitious Power overwhelmed, and ſo cruſhed, as to be unable to diſturb the Repoſe of Mankind for the future? Within about Half a Century, its Ambition coſt Europe above a Million of Mens Lives, and above 500 Millions of Money. But this is not the only Evil its Pride and Ambition has introduced, it has alſo laid all Europe under a Neceſſity of keeping up a ſtanding Military Force, by its continuing conſtantly armed, and erecting Fortreſſes on its Frontiers, always replete with the Sons of Rapine. But this anſwers no End, as by other Powers continuing armed likewiſe, the relative Power of France is no greater, than it would be if it did not keep in Pay 10,000 Troops in Time of Peace.

For once let us exert our whole Naval Strength, and leave Holland and the Empire to take Care of themſelves; France muſt ſink with the Deſtruction of her Commerce, which our Fleets are able to compleat. If the Auſtrian Netherlands are over run, France will ſoon be glad to reſtore them, and reſign the Pais Conque as an Equivalent for her Ravages, when the Britiſh Fleet has deſtroyed her Shipping, cut off her foreign Trade, and ruined her Merchants. When the Support and Supplies the French Commerce brings in, are intercepted, the national Funds ariſing from Taxes muſt fail, and their Army muſt dwindle, together with their Navigation and Marine.

As to Holland, we have ſeen what it did in the Year 1672, when ſeveral Princes of the Empire, the French King, and the King of England, had formed a moſt powerful Confederacy againſt it; we need not therefore be under any Concern for Holland.

Let us not, then, ſuffer a Ship to reſt in our Harbours, nor a Gun to ly in our Arſenals, till the French are entirely driven out of North America, and we have recovered our ancient Poſſeſſions. The Cod Fiſheries, and the Fur Trade, &c. will then be all our own; the French will be deprived of the principal Seminary of their Sailors; and the Engliſh recover the ſole Poſſeſſion of a Fiſhery worth more than Mines of Gold. This is our indubitable Right, this 'tis our Duty to reſume, and this we ſhould have had in our Poſſeſſion long ago, had we not been betrayed by a Faction.

It is apparent that we have a Navy able to carry Conqueſt wherever it extends its Wings; a publick Credit untainted, unſhaken; and Reſources in a rich People; whilſt the French are moſt cruelly burdened already with Taxes on Trade, Induſtry, and all the Neceſſaries of Life; and each pays four Times the Sum the Engliſh Commerce and Populace bear. Let us then lay our Hands on the Altar, and ſwear never to ſheathe the Sword, never to cloſe the Gates of Janus, till we have reduced this reſtleſs, this proud, this perfidious Nation to Reaſon, to Juſtice, to Peace; a Nation that has hitherto held for Honor what pleaſeth, and for Honeſt what profiteth; a People whoſe moſt candid Politicians teach, that no Treaty is to be obſerved, if the Intereſt of the Publick requires that it ſhould be broken: A Maxim held by them as juſt, for which they ought to be declared Enemies to the Human Race, and to be extirpated from the Face of the Earth, or at leaſt to be ſo humbled as to be obliged to live peaceably with their neighbouring Powers.

This we might eaſily compaſs, if we would exert our antient Spirit, tread in the Steps of our Predeceſſors, and employ the Thunder God has put into our Hands. The reſtleſs Power, that, like the Devil, "goes about amongſt its Neighbours ſeeking whom it may devour," might ſoon be confined to its own Kingdom of Chains and Darkneſs, if we would continue to exert our Naval Force, regardleſs of fallacious Terms of Peace, which will only be propoſed to gain Breath for War.

Whilſt France has a large Fleet the World will never be at Peace. Her Navy muſt be ruined, or the Repoſe of Chriſtendom renounced. No Treaty of Peace ought to be made with her till her Ships of War are deſtroyed, and ſhe is limited never to build or buy above ſuch a Number, as may render her unable to diſturb the Peace of Mankind without the Dread of having all her Commerce ruined.

By the good Conduct of the preſent Adminiſtration, to their immortal Praiſe be it ſpoken, the Britiſh Fleet is able at this preſent Juncture to back ſuch Demands, and exact ſuch Conditions, which would be equally glorious to the Nation, and ſalutary to Europe.

ANTIGALLICUS.

Peterſburgh, November 1. It appears clearly that our Court is preparing in earneſt for the Execution of her Treaty with the Crown of Great-Britain. The Troops that are to enter into that Service are to aſſemble early in the Spring in the conquered Provinces, where, it is reported, that her Majeſty will review them in Perſon. It is believed, that the Prince of Waldeck, whoſe Reputation as one of the firſt Military Genii of this Age is thoroughly eſtabliſhed, will ſpeedily enter into the Service of our Court, and in all Probability have the Command of the ſaid Troops.

November 29. The Earthquake of the firſt Inſtant at Liſbon was moſt ſenſibly felt at Toledo, which is 300 Miles up the River Tagus, and at the ſame Time of the Deſtruction of Liſbon, a Town of ſome Note (but Name unknown) ſituated on the other Side of the Tagus, ſuffered the ſame miſerable Fate.

Cadiz was a Peninſula, but by this great Inroad of the Sea is now an entire Iſland.

In 1531 there was an Earthquake at Liſbon, by which about 1400 Houſes were overthrown, and 600 more were ſo ſorely ſhaken that they were ready to fall, and many of their Churches were caſt to the Ground. The like Calamity happened to that City about 200 Years before.

Feb. 19 Since our laſt, we have learnt, that the Acadians who lately robbed the Houſe of Mr. John Williams at Santee, tho' it was thought they would have laid their Bones in the Swamp they had got into, have eſcaped from thence, and croſſed the River at Maxwell's Bluff, on a Bark Log.---We hear, that People in the Country are determined that no more of them ſhall eſcape that Way, or any other by Land; but it is probable theſe may reach Fort du Queſne, or Canada (as we hear, ſome have hinted they could eaſily find the Way) unleſs intercepted in ſome of the neighbouring Colonies thro' which they muſt paſs.

On Sunday laſt the Snow Grace, Iſaac Sommers Maſter, bound for Liſbon, inſtead of going out, ran aſhore upon the South Breakers, where ſhe is loſt. It being fine Weather no Lives were loſt, and all her Rigging, Sails, &c. are ſaved.

Newbern, in North-Carolina, February 13.

We hear from Saliſbury, in Rowan County, that a Gang of Robbers (under the Command of one William Owen, whom they call their Captain) being ſix in Number, have lately infeſted our Frontier Settlements, where they have committed ſeveral Robberies, and barbarouſly murdered one Man; that having fortified themſelves in a ſtrong Place in the Mountains, they carried off two Negroes from Virginia, broke open a Store there, and ſtole a conſiderable Quantity of Goods: About a Fortnight ago one of their Gang (named Cumberland) ſurrendered himſelf, and turn'd King's Evidence; who declares, their Deſign was to plunder and rob till they got a good Booty; with which they were to go off to the French, and pilot them into our Back Settlements; but by the Care and Vigilance of our Frontier Inhabitants, their Fort has been reduced to aſhes, their Wives taken, and are now in Rowan Goal, and themſelves narrowly eſcaped. There are 40 Horſemen now after them, and 'tis hoped they will be ſuppreſſed and puniſhed, as ſuch Enemies to their Country deſerve.

We alſo hear, that ſome Waggons from Charles-Town to the Atkin Settlement have been plundered, and the Waggoners cut off; but we hope this will prove falſe.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer at Fort Cumberland, in Nova-Scotia, dated February 6. 1756.

---"Col. Scott having fitted out a Party of Men in the ſame Dreſs of the Canadians and Indians, which Party Enſign Brewer Commanded, being 30---They ſet out after a Snow fell towards Memramcook, and had not gone far in that Road before he met with three Acadians, who came to him imagining them to be one of their own Parties, and would have taken ſix more immediately, but by the Eagerneſs of the Serjeant who fired, diſcovered the Wolf; therefore were obliged to return without other Succeſs.---Theſe Priſoners upon Examination acquainted Col. Scott, That Monſieur Beauhebere, Mon. De ber Villee and 15 Regulars, with 18 Canadians, and about 300 Indians, with their Families, to the Number of 1000, were aſſembled at Shediac (oppoſite the Iſle of St. John) to live upon the Cattle of the Country.---That Monſieur Beauhebere was preparing to come with a Party to fall upon our People when getting their Wood.-- Upon which Col. Scott propos'd going to viſit Monſieur Beauhebere; and by a Council that he call'd, it was greed to prepare 500 Men for this Undertaking: Whereupon all the Taylors were employed in making Indian Stockings, Caſes for their Firelocks, Mittens and Waiſtcoats, and the French Priſoners in making Mogaſons. When our Preparations were about two Thirds compleated, a Deſerter came to us (a German who had been one of the firſt at Halifax) who acquainted us of M. Beauhebere's being marched with about 130 Indians, and that he came with a Certainty of Succeſs, as he had ſent a Party 10 Days before to reconnoitre, who had it in their Power alone (as they reported) to have kill'd 50 of our Men; but their Orders were not to diſcover themſelves. The Deſerter aſſured us that he knew the very Place where M. Beauhebere would halt, and that he would lead a Party directly upon him in the Night.---This to us all was welcome News; and 'twas immediately reſolved upon to ſet out with 350 Men which Col. Scott himſelf went to command. We began our March at 11 o'Clock, and thro' as bad a Road as was ever march'd, being half Leg deep all the Way in Snow Water: We got to the wiſh'd for Place juſt before Dawn, but to our great Mortification there were no Enemy there; and by the Hurry and Eagerneſs of our Front, who firſt came to the Houſe where we imagin'd they were, and fir'd a Platoon, which making an Alarm, we concluded it would be in vain to ſeek further. We made Fires there and refreſhed our Men, and in two Hours ſet out upon our Return; but we had ſcarce quit the Woods with our Rear when they ſet up their Yell, and gave us a Fire, which our brave New-England Men quickly return'd, and anſwered their Cry; and the whole facing about purſued them into the Woods, but to little Purpoſe.

The Indians in their firſt Diſcharge kill'd poor Serjeant Read, and another of Warburton's, which were all that were hurt; the Indians upon ſeeing them fall, endeavour'd to ſcalp them; but the Rear which conſiſted of two New-England Officers, and about 15 of their Men, kept them off until more came. Several of our People followed the Enemy into the Woods, but it began to blow and ſnow extremely hard, and our Men fatigued with the Night's March, we call'd back our People and return'd: Thoſe that followed the Indians and French into the Woods, aſſured us, that they found the Blood in two or three Places of kill'd or wounded Men, and brought off with them 8 or 10 Pair of Snow Shoes, with a Piſtol and other Trifles: Upon our going off the ſecond Time, they came and fired upon our Rear (who kill'd one Indian) without hurting a Man of ours ---This Deſerter is a moſt knowing clever Fellow, he has been a Sort of Prime Miniſter to the Prieſts Le Luther and Pere Jermin, in their Indian Affairs, which he knows thoroughly, and all the Country: He ſays, that the St. John's Indians now have the Small-pox, having loſt lately 15 by it, that the Penobſcots brought it amongſt them, which Tribe is now almoſt reduced to nothing, having loſt 160 laſt Summer and this Winter. The Peaſants that remain in the Country are in the greateſt Miſery, living in the Woods, and muſt ſoon ſurrender or ſtarve, if they cannot get off to the Iſland of St. John, which is their Deſign, that being the Reaſon of Monſ. Beauhebere making Shediack his Quarters on Account of the Contiguouſneſs of that River with St. Jonn."-----

Laſt Friday came to this Town, from Virginia, the Hon. Colonel Waſhington.

NEW-YORK, March 8.

We hear that the General Aſſembly of New-Jerſey is to meet at Elizabeth-Town To-morrow, being the Ninth of March, on Buſineſs of Importance.

We hear from the Walkil, in Orange County, that on Friday the 25th of laſt Month, one Morgan Owens was ſhot and ſcalped there by three Indians, who the Day before were ſeen and known in that Neighbourhood to be River Indians.-----It ſeems Owens had juſt gone out of a Houſe a few Minutes before, in which he left one Silas Huſe, who hearing three Guns go off, took up his Gun and went out; he had not gone far before he ſaw the Indians making towards him, but none of their Guns being loaded, he had room to run, the Indians being afraid to follow till they had loaded again; accordingly he puſhed into a Swamp where he hid himſelf, and ſaw his Purſuers paſs cloſe by in Search of him, but happily miſs'd ſeeing him:---Soon after the Indians leaving the Swamp, he came out, and made the beſt of his Way to ſome Settlements; and a Number of the Inhabitants ſoon after went out in Purſuit of them.

We alſo hear from Goſhen, that the Inhabitants of a Place called Little-Britain, in New-Jerſey, near that Place, to the Number of 70 Men, gathered together on Monday laſt, and went out with their Arms, and 7 Days Proviſion, againſt the Indians, determined to kill and deſtroy every one they met with.

We learn from Albany, that a Number of Officers there made a Collection, and preſented Captain Rogers with a handſome Suit of Clothes, and about Sixteen Pounds this Currency, to be laid out in Refreſhments for him and his Men.

Extract of a Letter from the Head Quarters on Delaware, dated February 24. 1756.

"We arrived here in good Health the 13th Inſtant, and have poſted our Men along the Frontiers for near eighty Miles in Length. Since we came here the Indians have been very quiet, none having appeared even on t'other Side the River: Our Men have been over three Times; the laſt Time they burnt their Wigwams, but found no Indians. Every Thing here has a dreary Appearance; the Place is environed with almoſt inacceſſible Mountains, the Farms on the River Side quite abandoned, their Houſes and Barns moſtly burnt; and the People in general gone over to the Jerſey Side. Notwithſtanding we are come here for the Protection of the Place, and tho' the Inhabitants are ſenſible their Poultry, &c. would be either deſtroyed by the Indians, or otherwiſe loſt, they are ſo ungrateful, that knowing we want ſuch Neceſſaries, they impoſe almoſt double the Price we can buy them for in New-York Markets."

Monday laſt the Ship Hanibal, Capt. Bryſen, arrived here in ſix Weeks from the Bay of Honduras, and brings Advice of the following Veſſels being arrived there, viz. Stevenſon, Wallace, Bickers and Winthrop, of this Port, and a Brig from Philadelphia. On the 14th of February Capt, Bryſen ſpoke with the Sloop Swallow, Capt. Woodcock, twenty Days from Jamaica, bound for Newberry, in New-England.

Saturday laſt a Schooner arrived here from Rhode-Iſland, with a Number of Ship-carpenters, who in a few Hours after, embarked on board a Sloop and ſailed with a fair Wind for Albany.

The ſame Evening a Quantity of Cordage, ſome Cannon, and other Neceſſaries, for equipping the Veſſels deſigned to be built at Lake Ontario, were ſhipped on board a Sloop at the Long Pier.

PHILADELPHIA, March 11.

In a Letter from Juniata, in Cumberland County, dated the 24th of laſt Month, there is Advice, that Captain Patterſon being out with a Scouting Party, in order to ſcour the Woods as far as Shamokin, on the 20th of that Month fell in with ſome Indians at Middle-Creek, one of which they killed and ſcalped, put the reſt to Flight, and took three of their Horſes: That one of Captain Patterſon's Men was wounded: That the Woods, from Juniata to Shamokin, are full of Indians, ſeeking for Plunder and Scalps: That they found many Houſes burnt, and ſome burning; and that it was feared but few in a ſhort Time would be ſtanding, and that all the Grain would be deſtroyed.

We hear from Berks County, that on Saturday Evening laſt the Houſe and Barn of Barnabas Sickle, and the Mill of Peter Conrad, were burnt down, and the Wife of Baſſar Neyſong killed, and his Son, a Child of eight Years old, taken Captive, by three Indians; and that next Morning Sickle's Servant informed Captain Morgan of the Miſchief done at his Maſter's Plantation, whereupon he, with ſeven of his Men, immediately went in Search of the Enemy, but did not meet with any: And that on his Return he overtook one David Howell in his Way to the Fort, who informed him, that three Indians had fired five times at him, and the laſt time ſhot him through his Arm.

We hear further, from the ſame County, that ſix of the Regulars quartered at Reading have deſerted, and that two, who ſome time ſince deſerted from Eaſton, and were taken and put into Reading Goal, made their Eſcape laſt Week over the Priſon Wall.

The following Account of Miſchief done by the Indians at the Plantation of Philip Buffart, in Northampton County, on the other Side of the Blue Mountains, between Fort Norris and Fort Hamilton, was ſent in a Letter from Mr. J. Matthew Otto to a Gentleman at Bethlehem, dated March 5. viz. That on the Firſt Inſtant one Muhlhaus, who was breaking Flax there, was ſhot through the Body, and the Wound thought to be mortal: That a Boy of George Miller's was ſtanding at the Door, and received a Shot in the Breaſt, upon which he went into the Houſe to get his Gun, and as he was cocking it fell down dead: That then Buffart's Son ran out of the Houſe, when he was ſhot in ſeveral Places, and died ſoon after: That Buffart himſelf, and an Indian, fired at one another, when he was wounded in the Arm, and the Indian ſhot in the Back, who ran off, making an howling Noiſe: And that ſome of Buffart's Neighbours, who came to his Aſſiſtance, heard a Groaning at a Diſtance, thought to be that of two wounded Indians; that they ſaw five Indians; and that in the Beginning there were eight of them ſeen.

Captain Callender, of this Port, is arrived at Dartmouth from Antigua; the Captains Laing and Blair at Charles-Town, in South-Carolina; and Captain Houſe in North-Carolina, all from this Place.

The Third Claſs of the Academy Lottery is now drawing, and will be finiſhed To-morrow.

We are deſired to publiſh the following Piece.

AS the preſent Diſpute between our Gracious Sovereign and the French King, in which the Colonies upon this Continent are ſo much concerned, is drawing near to a Criſis, and that the Iſſue thereof will be either that his Majeſty or the grand Monarch will reign Maſter of North-America: I need not ſay how much it behoves every faithful Subject of England, and more eſpecially the Inhabitants upon this Continent, to join Heart and Hand in uſing all Means in their Power to promote and encourage the preſent important Deſign of driving our Enemies from the Settlements and Encroachments they have already made on his Majeſty's Lands and Territories in this Country, and to bring down the haughty Pride and Inſolence of the French King and Nation; and as for that Purpoſe the Succeſs of the enſuing Campaign, next to the Smiles of Heaven on our Arms, very much depends on Unanimity and a good Agreement, as well as on the Military Skill and Bravery of the Chief Commanders placed at the Head of our Armies; I think it to be the indiſpenſible Duty of every honeſt Man and Well-wiſher of his Country, upon this Occaſion, to embrace all Opportunities, both openly and privately, to cultivate and cheriſh the laudable Spirit of Unity and Concord among Perſons of all Ranks, and to diſcourage and diſcountenance the contrary in whomſoever found: It is therefore Matter of Concern to ſee Pieces in ſome late News Papers that have a different Aſpect, and ſeem to be wrote with different Views, and to me appear to be nothing leſs than the hateful Offspring of Pride and Envy, big with Miſchief, tending to ſet whole Colonies, as well as Officers, by the Ears. I think great Caution ſhould be uſed in the preſent Conjuncture of Affairs; we ſhould, at this Time, look forward, and at leaſt for ſome Time ſuſpend or forbear entering too far into paſt Actions, eſpecially with Reſpect to the Conduct and Behaviour of the brave Commanders in the laſt Campaign, ſince ſo much depends upon the next, and in which the major Part, if not all the ſame honourable Gentlemen are to be concerned, and to have the Command, leſt ſuch an ill-timed Enquiry ſhould create ill Blood, and in its Conſequences prove fatal to the Cauſe; that this might be the Caſe, will appear no unreaſonable or ill-grounded Suppoſition, if it be conſidered that Hiſtory affords many Inſtances that the moſt feaſible and beſt formed Schemes for Military Operations have failed, or miſcarried, for no other Reaſon but a Miſunderſtanding between Head Officers that had been appointed to put the ſame in Execution. What the Author or Authors of ſuch Performances may deſerve for writing Matters of ſuch a pernicious and miſchievous Nature, I ſhall not ſay, nor have I Inclination to enter into a particular Diſquiſition of the ſeveral Matters therein contained, being very bulky, and full of Sneer and Ill-nature, in ſome Meaſure levelled againſt Perſons of diſtinguiſhed Characters, and unſullied Merit, but ſhall leave the ſame to be cenſured by the Publick, and every private Sentiment, as they think fit. *A. THE Members of the Philadelphia Contributionship for ensuring Houses from Loss by Fire, are desired to meet at the Court-house on Monday, the 12th of April next, to chuse a Treasurer, and twelve Directors, for the ensuing year.

By Order of the Directors, ROBERT OWEN, Clerk.

To be LETT for Pasture,

ABOUT four acres of ground at Wicacoa, adjoining the Battery. Enquire of WILLIAM COLEMAN. ⊕

WHEREAS some evil disposed person, in Gazette Number 1419, has exhibited a false representation to the publick, of the manner in which John Bethel the elder disposed of his mills and lands in Darby, and of the decease of his son William Bethel, with a view and tendency (if any thing can be understood thereby) to invalidate the right and interest which Richard Lloyd deceased had therein, and injure the sale intended to be made thereof by his executrix. Now, to set the facts in a true light; John Bethel the elder, late of Darby, deceased, died seized of the mills, lands and appurtenances, having on his intermarriage by deed conveyed and settled one fourth part of the said premises on his wife, and the issue of that marriage in tail; and the said John Bethel (the said deed being deemed invalid for want of some solemnities the law in those times required) by his last will and testament devised the same fourth part of the said premises to his two youngest children, Samuel and Ann; two third parts thereof to Samuel; and one third part thereof to the said Ann, "now the wife of Benjamin Davis of Chester." The said testator also devised one fourth, and a moiety of a fourth part of the said mills, and three fourth parts of the land thereunto belonging, to his son William Bethel in fee. Another moiety of a fourth part of the said mills he gave to his son John Bethel (eldest son and heir) in fee. And a fourth part of the same mills the said testator ordered to be sold for the payment of debts and legacies. He also provides, that if his son William should happen to die before he should be impowered to dispose of the part or parts by the said will given to him and his heirs, that then he gave one sixteenth part so in the said will mentioned to be given to him, to the said Samuel and Ann, and the remainder thereof to be equally divided between his son John Bethel, and his daughters Mary and Sarah, and to their heirs and assigns for ever, in three equal parts; which said William Bethel survived the testator, attained to full age, and died intestate; whereupon the part or parts of the premises given to him as aforesaid, devolved upon, and vested in, his brother John Bethel, as heir at law; by means whereof, and with the moiety of a fourth part given him by his father as aforesaid, together with purchasing the quarter ordered for sale as aforesaid, he the said John Bethel became legally intitled to three fourth parts of the said mills, lands and appurtenances, and under whom the several owners since have derived their right. ⊕

We are deſired to inſert the following Obſervations on True Politeneſs, extracted from the Polite Philoſopher.

May cure the lighter Follies of the Age,
Cool Bigot Zeal, and ſoften Party Rage!

NEXT to their Concerns in the other World, Men are uſually moſt taken up with the Concerns of the Publick here. The Love of our Country is among thoſe Virtues to which every Man thinks he ſhould pretend; and the Way in which this is generally ſhewn, is by falling into what we call Parties; where, if a large Share of good Senſe allay not that Heat which is naturally contracted from ſuch Engagements, a Man ſoon falls into all the Violences of Faction, and looks upon every one as his Enemy, who does not expreſs himſelf about the Publick Good in the ſame Terms he does. This is a harſh Picture, but it is a juſt one, of the far greater Part of thoſe who are warm in Political Diſputes. A polite Man will therefore ſpeak as ſeldom as he can on Topics, where, in a mixed Company, it is almoſt impoſſible to ſay any Thing that will pleaſe all.

A polite Man may be religious, and if his Reaſon be convinced, attached to any Intereſt which, in his Opinion, ſuits beſt with that of the Publick; provided he conform thus far, that on no Occaſion he trouble others with the articles of his religious Creed, or political Engagements; or, by any Stroke of Wit or Raillery, hazard for a Laugh that Diſpoſition of Mind, which is abſolutely neceſſary to make Men eaſy when together.

Since there is ſo vaſt a Diſproportion, when we come to compare thoſe who have really either a Concern in the Government, or the Service of their Country more particularly at Heart, and the Men who pretend to either, merely from a Deſire of appearing of ſome Conſequence themſelves; we ought certainly to avoid making one of this Number, and aim rather at being quiet within ourſelves, and agreeable to thoſe among whom we live, let their political Notions be what they will, inaſmuch as this is a direct Road to Happineſs, which all Men profeſs they would reach if they could, and to make a Man happy in himſelf, and agreeable to others, is the Characteriſtick of true Politeneſs. And they act contrary to true Politeneſs who fall into a common Miſtake, that the Circumſtances of publick Affairs, and the Characters of public Perſons, are the propereſt Topics for general Converſation; as they never conſider, that it is hard to find a Company wherein in ſome Body or other hath not either Liking or Diſtaſte, or has received Injuries or Obligations from thoſe who are likelieſt to be mentioned upon ſuch Occaſions; and who will be apt to put a ſerious Conſtruction on a ſlight Expreſſion, and remember afterwards in Earneſt what the Speaker meant ſo much a Jeſt, as never to have thought of it more. Theſe perhaps may paſs with ſome for trivial Remarks; but with thoſe who regard their own Eaſe, and have at all obſerved what conduces to make Men diſagreeable to one another, I flatter myſelf they will have more Weight.

HALIFAX, February 21.

A Frenchman, lately taken Priſoner by Captain Lewis's Party of Rangers, informs, That a Schooner from Boſton, bound to Annapolis-Royal, on board of which Capt. Lieut. Martin, and a private Matroſs, belonging to the Royal Train of Artillery in this Place, were Paſſengers, having put into a ſmall Harbour to get a Pilot, they called to the People on Shore to ſend one off, but they having no Boat, he went on Shore, and brought one off; but the Wind not being fair to proceed to Annapolis, they concluded to tarry till it was more favourable, and in the Night Time a Number of Indians in Canoes boarded and took the Veſſel, and made the Men Priſoners; but what they have done with them we have not yet heard.

IT being of great Importance, that the Men to be inliſted into His Majeſty's Service in the intended Expedition againſt Crown-Point, be good able bodied effective Men:

I do therefore hereby ſtrictly require of all Perſons who have received, or ſhall receive Orders from me to enliſt Soldiers into the ſaid Service, to take effectual Care that ſuch Perſons only be inliſted, and that none elſe receive the Bounty allowed by this Government. And the ſaid Perſons employed for the Enliſting Soldiers as aforeſaid, are further required to ſend me, once every Week, an Account of the Progreſs they have made in the ſaid Buſineſs, with the Names of the Perſons by them inliſted.

NEW-YORK, March 15.

Monday laſt a Number of the River Indians, inhabiting within the Counties of Ulſter and Orange, were brought down to this City, under a proper Guard of white Men, to protect them from the Inſults of the enraged Populace; on which Occaſion the following Proclamation was iſſued.

By His EXCELLENCY

Sir CHARLES HARDY, Knt.

Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, and Vice Admiral of the ſame,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS on the Twenty-ſeventh Day of December laſt, I iſſued a Proclamation, requiring the Juſtices of the Peace of the Counties of Orange and Ulſter, to ſend proper Perſons among the River Indians, to repreſent to them the Danger they would be liable to if ſeen in the Back Settlements, where they might be taken for Enemies, and deſtroyed by the Forces employed on the Frontiers; and to invite them to remove with their Families into the Towns, and aſſuring them of Protection and Aſſiſtance. In Conſequence whereof, many of the ſaid Indians did remove nearer the Inhabitants than their uſual Places of Reſidence, to avoid ſuch Danger, and not doubting but they ſhould receive the Protection of this Government. Notwithſtanding which, a Party of armed Men, headed by one Samuel Slaughter, came on the Second Inſtant, to the Houſe of Charles Stephenſon, at Wilemanton in Ulſter County, and killed an Indian and his Squaw, whom they found there: And early the next Morning went to a Wigwam, or Indian Settlement, about a Mile and an Half from the ſaid Stephenſon's Houſe, and there killed and ſcalped three Indian Men, two Squaws, and two Indian Children. And whereas ſuch Proceedings, if not immediately put a Stop to, or the Authors of thoſe already committed, be ſuffered to eſcape with Impunity, may not only draw upon us the Reſentment of all the Settlement Indians as yet our Friends, of whom it is not doubted there are many, but give great Diſguſt to other Nations in Friendſhip with the Engliſh: I HAVE therefore thought fit, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Council, to iſſue this Proclamation, hereby requiring and commanding the Sheriffs of the ſaid Counties of Orange and Ulſter, and all other Officers within this Province, diligently to ſearch for, and apprehend the ſaid Samuel Slaughter, and him to commit to ſome County Goal, to anſwer for the ſaid Offence, and to remain there until delivered by due Courſe of Law; and to enquire and return to me the Names of the ſeveral Perſons concerned with him therein. And the Juſtices of the Peace and other Officers in the ſaid Counties, are hereby further required to invite all the Settlement Indians not already come in, to retire into the Towns for their Safety, to take an Account of the Names of all ſuch, and to aſſure them of the Protection of the Government, and ſuch Aſſiſtance as they may ſtand in Need of; which all his Majeſty's Subjects are hereby enjoined to afford them during their peaceable Deportment among them.

GIVEN under my Hand and Seal at Arms at Fort-George, in the City of New-York, the Eighth Day of March, 1756, in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of GOD of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth.

CHARLES HARDY.

By his Excellency's Command,
Gw. BANYAR. Dep. Secry.

GOD ſave the KING.

Wedneſday laſt Capt. Sears arrived here in 15 Days from Halifax, by whom we have Advice, That ſome time ago Capt. Milton ſailed from Chignecto for the Weſtward, with a Cargo of French Neutrals; but on the Paſſage (thro' the Treachery of ſome of the Crew) they took Poſſeſſion of the Veſſel, and carried her into St. Mary's Bay; when, after lying a Month, they ſailed for St. John's, there burnt the Veſſel, and delivered the People into the Hands of the Indians.

Capt. Sears adds, That his Majeſty's Snow Vulture, Captain Scarff, and the Halifax Province Sloop, Captain Rogers, were fitting out with all Expedition, in order, as 'twas ſaid, to be ſent to St. John's, to look after the above mentioned Frenchmen, and ſome others, that were aſſembled there.

Capt. Libourn, in the Brig Relief, inward bound from South-Carolina, in the great Snow Storm we had here Friday and Saturday laſt, parted her Cables and went on Shore on the Inſide of the Hook;----the Crew with Difficulty ſaved themſelves, but the Veſſel and Cargo 'tis feared will be loſt. Capt. Price from Philadelphia alſo went aſhore, but by unloading her will be recovered. Two other Sloops, unknown, are alſo upon the Beach, and probably may be got off without much Damage. News from Briſtol in eight Weeks, Via Carolina, is, That the French had not then made any Captures of Engliſh Veſſels; and that the latter ſtill continued taking theſe of the former.

Thurſday laſt about 12 o'Clock, happen'd a very melancholy Accident in our Bay, when one of the Ferry Boats from Staten-Iſland, being coming over, in a pretty high Wind, with 13 Men and 3 Horſes on board, a rough Sea, near Oyſter-Iſland, overwhelmed the Boat, and ſhe ſunk down directly; by which Means 11 of the Men and the 3 Horſes were drowned: As it happened to be juſt on the Edge of the Flats, about 3 Feet of the Boat's Maſt continued above Water after ſhe ſunk, to which ſeveral of the Men clung for a conſiderable Time: And upon its being diſcovered from this City, two other Boats immediately put off, who, tho' upwards of four Miles diſtant, happily reached them Time enough to ſave two of the Men, the reſt being quite ſpent with Cold and Wet, could not hold out;---and thoſe ſaved were almoſt ready to drop likewiſe:---Perſons ſaved were Capt. Williams, deſigned a Battoe-Man, and one of his Men: Thoſe drowned were Thomas Harriſon, Iſrael Roſe, Daniel Fling, and James Jones, deſigned Battoe-Men under Capt. Williams; Mr. Thomas Aiſton of Raway;----Moore of Piſcataway; Denyſe Van Tyle, the Boatman; William Smallpierce, a Soldier belonging to Shirley's Regiment; and three Gentlemen Strangers.

PHILADELPHIA, March 18.

We have the following Account from the Reverend Mr. STEEL.

"On Sunday, the Twenty-ninth of February, about Twelve o'Clock, two Boys at a ſmall Diſtance from David Davis's Fort, in the Little Cove, Cumberland County, were fired on by three Indians, when one of the Boys eſcaped, and apprized the Fort. The Indians immediately came up and took Poſſeſſion of the Barn, and fired often on the Fort, which at this Time had but eight or ten Men in it. One of the Shots killed an old Man, Father-in Law to David Davis. The Fort returned the Fire briſkly, and it is believed did Execution, ſeveral Fragments of burnt Bones being afterwards found in the Barn. The Indians failing in their Attempt, divided themſelves into two Parties, being computed in all to be about Twenty, and left the Fort. Peters's Townſhip was apprized of this Attack about Three or Four o'Clock, and with all poſſible Speed raiſed ſeveral ſmall Parties, who directly marched to the Relief of the Cove, came in the Night to the Fort, and early in the Morning, to the Number of Forty-ſix, ſet off in Purſuit of the Indians, came in Sight of ſix on Horſe-back, and purſued them ſo cloſely, that they were forced to quit their Horſes, and leave a Woman they had taken the Day before near Potowmack, and ſo eſcaped from the young Men, who brought the Captive Woman and Horſes to the Fort, and being joined by another Party under Mr. Potter, went in Purſuit of them, and came on the Tract of two Companies, which they followed till Evening, but the Snow falling ſo thick and heavy, they were obliged to return to the Fort. Four of our People were found dead, and four more are miſſing, it not being as yet known whether they are killed or made Priſoners. Great Numbers of Cattle are killed, and ſeveral Horſes carried off. The reſcued Woman tells us, the Indians informed her, that they were Jacobs's and Shingas's Companies, and that they would come in a greater Body when the Leaves were out.

In the Evening of the ſame Day the Cove was attacked, one Alexander, on his Way to the Path-Valley, about two Miles above John M'Dowell's Mill, ſpied a Number of Indians near Thomas Barr's, in Peters's Townſhip, three of which took thro' ſaid Barr's Orchard, to cut off his Return; but he eſcap'd, and alarmed the Fort at ſaid Mill. Notice was given to the Townſhip with all poſſible Diſpatch. But we judging that the Indians deſigned to play us the ſame Trick they did on the Firſt of November laſt, when we were preparing to ſupport the Great-Cove, did not recal our young Men, who were on their Way to the Little-Cove. Early on Monday Morning, before Day, a Command of fourteen Men, belonging to Captain Croghan's Company, who were at the Mill, and about twelve more young Men, went off, to watch the Motions of the Enemy. When they got within a Quarter of a Mile of Barr's they heard the Indians, and judged by the many different Voices, that there was a great Body of them, and ſent back for a Re-inforcement to the Mill; but the Soldiers, being ſo eager to engage, did not wait, but marched directly up. The young Lads of the Townſhip were to take a Compaſs about, and come behind the Indians, while the Soldiers attacked before; but unhappily the Soldiers, getting within Gun-ſhot, before the other Party had near reach'd their deſign'd Place, engaged the Indians, who were ſtanding round a Fire, and thought to be above Fifty. The Serjeant aſſured me he ſaw ſome of the Indians fall at the firſt Fire. The Indians ran directly to the Place from which the Soldiers fired, and briſkly fired on the Soldiers, killed one of them, and being vaſtly an Over-party, obliged the Soldiers to give Way. The other Party hearing the Firing, haſtned to the Place, found the Indians poſſeſſed of the Soldiers firſt Ground, fired upon them, and ſaw ſome fall: The Indians returned the Fire, wounded a young Man, Thomas Barr, jun. and one of them ran up with his Tomahawk to the Lad, which one Armſtrong obſerving, fired upon the Indian, and kill'd him. The young Men not ſeeing the Soldiers, and concluding they were either killed or fled, retreated, and about a Quarter of a Mile from that Place the Reinforcement from the Mill met them and the Soldiers, and returned to make a freſh Attack; but the Indians had ſlipt them, paſſed the Creek near William Clark's, and were coming with all their Speed to ſurprize the Fort at the Mill, and might poſſibly have ſucceeded, had not two Dutch Lads, returning from foddering their Maſter's Cattle, ſpied them. Three Indians fired at the Lads, one of which fell, the other eſcaped into the Fort. In ten Minutes the Indians had ſurrounded the Fort, and ſculking in a great Thicket, ſcarcely Gun-ſhot off the Fort, fired many Shot at our Men, who were looking over the Wall, and as oft as they got a Sight of the Indians, returned the Fire. At this Time two Men, coming up to the Mill, fell into the Middle of the Enemy; but made their Eſcape into the Fort, tho' fired at three Times. Our Men, near Thomas Barr's, hearing the Guns, judging what was the Occaſion, return'd, and meeting the Indians, ruſh'd on them, beat them back, and by the Blood found in one Place, and a Tomahawk in another, where an Indian was fired at, we believe two Indians were wounded; for they cringed their Bodies, and ſeemed to ſally, as having received the Shot. While the Indians were retreating back thro' the Thicket, five Men from Mr. Hoops's came riding up to the Mill, when the Indians fired upon them, wounded one Reily in the Belly, and killed and ſcalped one Knowland, a Soldier of Captain Croghan's Company.

The Serjeant not being willing to lead out the Men till Mr. Crawford, who had the Command, ſhould come from Mr. Hoops's, having already loſt two of them, and the Snow beginning to fall thick, nothing more was attempted that Night; ſo that the Indians had Time to burn Barr's Houſe, and we believe they burnt their Dead in it; for next Morning Mr. Crawford, with about fifty Men, went in Queſt of the Enemy, found many of their bloody Cloaths, and five Guns, ſaid to be Braddock's Arms. The Charges of two of them were drawn, and each had five large Bullets in it, well chew'd. We loſt in the Attack in Peters's Townſhip, three Men, and had three wounded, one of them, viz. M'Donnell, was wounded within five Miles of Col. Chambers's Mill, on the Evening of the ſame Day the Engagement was at M'Dowell's Fort.

By a Letter from Hanover Townſhip, in Lancaſter County, dated the Eighth Inſtant, there is Advice, that the Morning before Andrew Lycan, who lived over the Mountains, was attacked by the Indians. He had with him his Son John Lycan, a Negro Man, and a Boy, and two of his Neighbours, John Revalt, and Ludwig Shut: That Andrew Lycan, and John Revalt went out early that Morning to fodder their Creatures, when two Guns were fired at them, but did not hurt them; upon which they ran into the Houſe, and prepared themſelves for an Engagement: That then the Indians got under Cover of a Hog-houſe, near the Dwelling-houſe, and John Lycan, Revalt and Shut, crept out of the Houſe, in order to get a Shot at them, but were fired at by five Indians, and all wounded, Lycan through the Hand and Thigh, Revalt in the Shoulder, and Shut in the Belly: That Andrew Lycan ſaw one of the Indians over the Hog-houſe, named Joſhua James, fired at him, and killed him; and alſo ſaw two white Men run out of the Hog-houſe, and get a little Diſtance from it: That upon this our People endeavoured to eſcape, but were purſued by the Indians, to the Number of Sixteen, or upwards, and John Lycan and Revalt being badly wounded, were able to do nothing, ſo went off with the Negroe, and left Andrew Lycan, Shut, and the Boy, engaged with the Indians: That the Enemy purſued ſo cloſe, that one of them came up to the Boy, and was going to ſtrike his Tomahawk into him, when Shut turned, and ſhot him dead, and Andrew Lycan ſhot another, and is poſitive he killed him, ſaw a third fall, and thinks they wounded ſome more of them: That they being now both ill wounded, and almoſt ſpent, they ſat down on a Log to reſt themſelves, and the Indians ſtood a little Way off looking at them: That one of the Indians killed was Bill Davis, and two others they knew to be Tom Hickman, and Tom Hayes, all Delawares, and well known in theſe Parts: That our Men got all into Hanover Townſhip, are under the Care of a Doctor, and likely to do well, but have loſt all they were worth: And that the People of that Townſhip were raiſing a Number of Men to go after the Enemy. The above People lived about 25 Miles below Shamokin, at or near Wikineſko Creek.

The Brigantine Argo, Captain Hinton, of this Port, inward bound from Liſbon, is aſhore on Cape-Henlopen.

On Friday Night we had a violent North-eaſt Snow Storm, which did conſiderable Damage to the Veſſels at the Wharffs; and it is to be feared we ſhall hear of the bad Conſequences of it from Sea.

To be SOLD,

THree fourth parts of a good grist mill, situated on a very good stream of water in Darby, in the county of Chester, and province of Pennsylvania, having two pair of stones, three boulting mills, which with the hoistings go by water, a good frame dam, and all other conveniencies for carrying on the merchant business, situated very convenient for land or water carriage to the city of Philadelphia, being about 7 miles distant from the said city; also a good dwelling-house, and other buildings with about six acres of land, the most of which is very good water'd meadow, late belonging to Richard Lloyd, deceased. Any person inclining to purchase the said premises, by applying to the subscriber, living thereon, may be informed as to the title and terms of sale. If it is desired the purchaser may have credit for a large part of the purchase, upon giving good security, and paying interest, to Hannah Lloyd, executrix.

N. B. All persons indebted to the estate of the said Richard Lloyd, are desired once more to come and pay the same, otherwise they may expect trouble. D

WHEREAS some evil disposed person, in Gazette Number 1419, has exhibited a false representation to the publick, of the manner in which John Bethel the elder disposed of his mills and lands in Darby, and of the decease of his son William Bethel, with a view and tendency (if any thing can be understood thereby) to invalidate the right and interest which Richard Lloyd deceased had therein, and injure the sale intended to be made thereof by his executrix. Now, to set the facts in a true light; John Bethel the elder, late of Darby, deceased, died seized of the mills, lands and appurtenances, having on his intermarriage by deed conveyed and settled one fourth part of the said premises on his wife, and the issue of that marriage in tail; and the said John Bethel (the said deed being deemed invalid for want of some solemnities the law in those times required) by his last will and testament devised the same fourth part of the said premises to his two youngest children, Samuel and Ann; two third parts thereof to Samuel; and one third part thereof to the said Ann, "now the wife of Benjamin Davis of Chester." The said testator also devised one fourth, and a moiety of a fourth part of the said mills, and three fourth parts of the land thereunto belonging, to his son William Bethel in fee. Another moiety of a fourth part of the said mills he gave to his son John Bethel (eldest son and heir) in fee. And a fourth part of the same mills the said testator ordered to be sold for the payment of debts and legacies. He also provides, that if his son William should happen to die before he should be impowered to dispose of the part or parts by the said will given to him and his heirs, that then he gave one sixteenth part so in the said will mentioned to be given to him, to the said Samuel and Ann, and the remainder thereof to be equally divided between his son John Bethel, and his daughters Mary and Sarah, and to their heirs and assigns for ever, in three equal parts; which said William Bethel survived the testator, attained to full age, and died intestate; whereupon the part or parts of the premises given to him as aforesaid, devolved upon, and vested in, his brother John Bethel, as heir at law; by means whereof, and with the moiety of a fourth part given him by his father as aforesaid, together with purchasing the quarter ordered for sale as aforesaid, he the said John Bethel became legally intitled to three fourth parts of the said mills, lands and appurtenances, and under whom the several owners since have derived their right. ⊕

HANNAH LLOYD, Executrix.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25.

The Author of the following Hints deſires they may be publiſhed, in hopes that they may prove of ſome Uſe to the Publick.

AMONG the direful Conſequences of War, there is none more common or grievous than Famine; and as many Thouſands on our Frontiers dare not, in the preſent Conjuncture of Affairs, take Care of their Winter, nor put in their Spring Crops, our Armies muſt be ill ſupplied, our Province muſt ſuffer greatly in her Commerce, and many Families be in Danger of ſtarving, unleſs Care be taken to prevent this threatening Calamity. An Affair of ſuch Importance deſerves the Publick Attention, and the Care of our Legiſlative Body; for though Men may ſee what is beneficial, Indolence, Humour or Prejudices, may hinder them from proſecuting it with Vigour and Induſtry, unleſs obliged to do ſo by LAW. And though the following Plan may be greatly deficient, yet it may furniſh ſome Hints to the Ingenious, or to the Aſſembly, to provide againſt Want and Diſtreſſes, which, 'tis hop'd, will excuſe the well-intended Trouble it may give to the Publick.

Let it be order'd by the GOVERNOR and ASSEMBLY,

That every Townſhip, within fifteen or twenty Miles of the Mountains, on our Frontiers, or further diſtant, as Apprehenſions of Danger make it neceſſary, meet on a certain Day, appointed to be as ſoon as poſſible, and chuſe eight of the moſt reputable Men in their Bounds, who ſhall be Directors. If all the Townſhip cannot meet on the Day appointed, let as many as can meet thereon, between the Hours of Twelve and Three in the Afternoon, chuſe theſe Directors, who ſhall divide their Townſhip, or join with neighbouring Townſhips, and divide the Inhabitants, as they lie contiguous, in Bands of ten, twelve, or fourteen Farmers, who ſhall aſſiſt one another to put in Spring Crops, repair Fences, mow and cure Hay, cut down and ſecure their Harveſts, fallow their Fields, and ſow their Winter Grain, and carry on all their Labour as one Family; or, as the Moravian Oeconomiſts, let the Number of Acres cultivated, or Labour done, bear a juſt Proportion to the Strength of the different Families; he that affords a double Number of Hands and Horſes, ſhall have a double Quantity of Labour done, or Days Labour in Proportion to his Ability, or, in ſome Caſes, they may work all in common, and divide the Crop.

Every Band ſhall continue as choſen for one full Year, unleſs we have a Peace ſooner with the Indians; and if any Difference ariſe between any Perſons of theſe Bands, five of the eight Perſons belonging to the Townſhip ſhall decide it. If the Band be compoſed of Inhabitants of two Townſhips, five out of the Townſhip, where there are moſt Farmers in the Band, ſhall decide it; but if they cannot give them Satisfaction by their Determination, they, or any of them, may appeal to a Council, which ſhall conſiſt of the remaining Directors of ſaid Townſhip, and four choſen by them, or two of them, from the Directors in the Neighbouring Townſhip or Townſhips, whoſe Deciſion ſhall be final.

At the End of the Year theſe Bands ſhall be diſſolved, and they ſhall chuſe the ſame or new Directors as before, who ſhall appoint Bands, and act in all Reſpects, and with the ſame Power as was done by their Predeceſſors the Year before, and theſe Directors ſhall always belong to ſome one of the Bands, and be under the ſame Laws with their other Neighbours; and if any Director refuſe to ſerve when choſen, he ſhall pay Forty Shillings; and in this Caſe, or if any die, the Townſhip ſhall, within eight Days, proceed to chuſe another Director. Every one of theſe Bands ſhall always at leaſt have eight armed Men i the Field when they labour, two or four of whom ſhall watch under Arms while the reſt follow their Labour, and for every Failure the Band ſhall pay Forty Shillings, to be levied by Order of any four of the Directors met in Council.

It may be of Uſe for the Band to build a Fort or Stockade near the Center of their Plantations, where they can live convenient to their Buſineſs, and where Tradeſmen and their Families may live ſecure; and this will always keep ſome Hundreds or Thouſands of Men in Arms; and many of them can meet at a few Minutes Warning; ſo that no Indian may, with Safety, diſturb them. And where the Directors ſhould certify that ſome Farmers were ſo poor that they could not find Arms, it would be reaſonable that Arms ſhould be lent to the Directors to put into their Hands, ſaid Directors giving their Bonds to return them ſafe when demanded.

In a London Paper of the End of October laſt, we have the following Summary of the Operations of this Campaign.

TWO French Men of War taken; an Engliſh Man of War loſt, another taken, but reſtored, through Generoſity or Policy.—St. John's Fort taken by the Engliſh, and the French removed to a Diſtance from the Peninſula of Nova-Scotia.—The Forces ſent againſt Fort du Queſne defeated, with the Loſs of Cannon, Baggage, Arms, Ammunition, and every Thing.—In Conſequence of that Defeat, the intended Expeditions againſt Niagara and Crown-Point have been laid aſide; and ſo the French have, upon the Whole, triumphed over us on the American Continent.—To make Amends for this Diſappointment, we have taken an hundred French Merchantmen; and they have hitherto bore it very patiently; But whether there is any Policy in this, is more than we can pretend to determine.—In the mean Time France has ſafely got home the Ships ſhe ſent to America laſt Spring, and ſo may be be ready for another Race thither next Year, with Reinforcements, if this Winter does not produce an Accommodation.—Thus, all Things conſidered, Britain is a great Loſer by this Year's Work: Yet we don't hereby inſinuate, that ſhe ought therefore to huddle up an Accommodation with France, but we humbly apprehend it behoves her to take a little more Care to employ none but good Heads in Affairs of Importance, and then rely upon Providence for better Succeſs next Year. [The News of the Baron Dieſkaw's Defeat by General Johnſon, was not then known in England, or the Account would certainly have been a little more favourable to the Engliſh, if it were not more than a Ballance.]

WILLIAMSBURG, Feb. 6.

Laſt Week the Hon. Peter Randolph, and Hon. William Byrd, Eſquires, with a Number of Gentlemen and Attendants, ſet out from Peterſburg, to confer with the Chiefs of the Cherokee Nation; to whom they have carried very large Preſents.

Feb. 13. By ſome Gentlemen juſt arrived from Fort Cumberland, we are informed, that the Indians have lately appeared in that Neighbourhood, and have ſcalped one Man belonging to the Troop of light Horſe, and that one of the ſaid Troop is miſſing; ſeveral Parties have been out in Search of them, but without being able to meet with them, or ſo much as to find either their Fires or Tracks.

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 26.

Extract of a Letter from Conococheague, dated Feb. 24.

"We are in the greateſt Diſtreſs here. Beſides the Danger we are "expoſed to, and the Shortneſs of our Crops, we are now full "of People, who have been obliged to leave their Plantations, to "avoid falling into the Hands of the Savages. Poor as we are, we "can't refuſe a little Part of our poor Stock to our Fellow-Subjects, who are reduced to begging their Bread. Laſt Friday the "Indians killed three Men in the Gap of the Mountain; and we "have certain Accounts that there is a large Body, who, we expect, will fall upon this Settlement. This Day we have an Account, that 3 or 4 Perſons have been killed by the Savages near "the Line. We don't know what to do; 'tis hard to give up our "Livings, and yet, unleſs we are aſſiſted, that will be the beſt we "are to expect. The People about ten or twelve Miles beyond us, "have left their Plantations upon this Alarm.

JOSEPH MAYHEW."

March 4. By a Perſon come to Town this Day from Frederick County, we are told, that laſt Sunday two Boys near Lawrence Wilſon's, in that County, were kill'd and ſcalp'd; and a Son of one Mr. Lynn was found dead and ſcalp'd; himſelf and three more of his Family miſſing. The Houſe of Ralph Matſon, about Half a Mile from Stoddert's Fort, was burnt on Tueſday laſt Week; ſome Sheep which were in a Penn near the Houſe, the Indians flung in the Fire alive, others they kill'd, and ſome they ſcalp'd.

March 11.

Extract of a Letter from Conococheague, dated Feb. 29.

"My laſt was of the 26th Inſtant, on our March to Toonaloways: About 5 Miles on this Side of Stoddert's Fort, we found John Myer's Houſe in Flames, and 9 or 10 Head of large Cattle killed, beſides Calves, and ſeveral Horſe-kind and Sheep. About 3 Miles and a Half further up the Road, we found a Man (one Hynes) killed and ſcalped, with one Arm cut off, and ſeveral Arrows ſticking in him; we could not bury him, having no Tools with us for that Purpoſe. Half a Mile further (within a Mile of Stoddert's Fort) we found Ralph Matſon's Houſe burnt down, and ſeveral Sheep and Hogs killed. When we came to Stoddert's Fort, we found them all under Arms, expecting every Minute to be attacked: From thence we went to Coombes's Fort, where we found a young Man, about 22 Years of Age, killed and ſcalped; there were only four Men in this Fort, two of which were unable to bear Arms; but upwards of forty Women and Children, who were in a very poor Situation, being afraid to go out of the Fort, even for a Drink of Water; the Houſe catch'd Fire, during the Time the Indians were ſurrounding the Fort, and would have been burnt down, but luckily there were ſome Soap-Suds in the Houſe, by which they extinguiſh'd it. The young Man, mentioned above, was one Lynn's Son, and was ſitting on the Fence of the Stock-Yard with Coombes's Son, when they diſcovered the Indians, upon which they ran to get into the Fort, and before they reach'd it, Lynn's Son was ſhot down, and an Indian purſued the other Man with a Tomahawk within 30 Yards of the Fort, but he luckily got into the Fort, and ſhot the Indian. We ſearched the Woods to ſee if we could diſcover where the Indian was buried (as they ſuppoſed him to be mortally wounded) we found, in two Places, a great Quantity of Blood, but could not find the Body. We ſaw ſeveral Creatures ſhot, ſome dead, and others going about with Arrows ſticking in them. About half a Mile on this Side Mr. Kenny's (in Little Toonaloways) we found a Load of Oats and a Load of Turnips in the Road, which two Boys were bringing to Coombes's, and it is imagin'd the Boys are carried off by the Indians. When we came to Mr. Kenny's, we ſaw ſeveral Sheep and Cattle killed: From thence we went to one Lowther's, about two Miles further, where we found his Grain and two Calves burnt, two Cows and 9 or 10 Hogs killed, and about 150 Yards from the Houſe found Lowther dead and ſcalped, and otherways terribly mangled; his Brains were beat out, as is ſuppoſed with his own Gun-barrel, which we found ſticking in his Scull, and his Gun broken; there was an Ax, two Scythes, and ſeveral Arrows, ſticking in him. From here we returned to Combes's, and buried the young Man, and left ten of our Men here to aſſiſt them to ſecure their Grain, which, as ſoon as they have done, they purpoſe to leave that Fort, and go to Stoddert's. From hence we went to Stoddert's Fort, where we lay on Friday Night; and Yeſterday, on our Way down here, we buried the Man we left on the Road. ISAAC BAKER."

Major Prather, who has the Governor's Commiſſion to command all the Forces on the Frontiers (except thoſe at Fort Cumberland) has at this Time under his Command about 150 Men; and Capt. Alexander Beall, who went out with a Company of Voluntiers in November laſt, has Orders to raiſe as many Men as he can, not exceeding 100, and join Major Prather, with all poſſible Expedition.

Thomas Mills, who came from Conococheague the Beginning of laſt Week, ſays, that the Inhabitants of that Part of Frederick County, were lately thrown into the greateſt Conſternation, by ſome Perſons firing Guns, and hollowing with a Deſign to terrify the Inhabitants, and make them deſert their Habitations; he farther ſays, that upon the People's flying, theſe Villains went and robbed their Houſes, and that ſome of them have been ſince apprehended, and confeſſed what is above mentioned.

BOSTON, March 25.

Tueſday laſt His Excellency was pleaſed to ſend the following

MESSAGE to both Houſes.

Gentlemen of the Council and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I Cannot help mentioning to you, before the Court riſes, the Danger we are in from the Licentiouſneſs of ſome evil minded Perſons, who have lately cauſed to be publiſhed divers Pieces in a Weekly News-Paper in this Town, reflecting not only on the Officers, but on the Governments alſo concerned in the late Expedition againſt Crown-Point. I have never been fond of any unneceſſary Reſtraint upon the Preſs; but Pieces of this Sort, which evidently proceed from a very bad Diſpoſition, ſhould at all times be diſcouraged. And they are more eſpecially unſeaſonable at this Juncture, when the moſt perfect Harmony ought to ſubſiſt among the Governments, in order to the Oppoſing the common Enemy of all His Majeſty's Colonies. I therefore recommend this Affair to your Conſideration, and deſire you to think of proper Meaſures to diſcountenance the Publication of malignant Libels, which have a Tendency to alienate the Affections of the ſeveral Governments from each other, as thoſe which I refer to moſt apparently have.

Province-Houſe, March 9, 1756. W. SHIRLEY.

The Anſwer of both Houſes to the above Meſſage.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

THE two Houſes are very ſenſible, that it is of great Importance at all Times to cultivate and improve the ſtricteſt Harmony between the ſeveral Britiſh Governments, and more eſpecially ſo at this Juncture, when they are projecting Meaſures, by a joint Force, to remove the French from their Encroachments on His Majeſty's Territories.

And the two Houſes cannot but expreſs upon this Occaſion a juſt Abhorrence of the Publication of any malignant Libels or defamatory Pieces, which have a Tendency to alienate the Affections of the ſeveral Governments from each other. They utterly diſapprove of the Publication of the Pieces referred to in your Excellency's Meſſage of the Ninth Inſtant, as having a miſchievous Tendency, and they are heartily willing to countenance a Proſecution, ſo far as they are an Offence againſt the Law.

The Court expects, with your Excellency's Leave, to have Receſs this Day. If the Laws of the Province are not already full enough on this Point, they ſhall be ready, at ſome future Seſſion, to make effectual Proviſion againſt all ſuch Practices as have a Tendency to hurt the publick Intereſts. And as there have Pieces of a like Nature lately been publiſhed in New-York, they hope that Government will take Care to reſtrain the Licentiouſneſs of the Preſs there.

March 10, 1756. In the Name, and by Order of the Council,
THO. CLARKE, Deputy Secretary.

Wedneſday laſt his Excellency was pleaſed to adjourn the Great and General Court or Aſſembly of this Province till Tueſday, the 30th of this inſtant March.

At the Superior Court of Judicature, Court of Aſſize, &c. held here laſt Week, Sarah Forland, alias Rogerſon, was indicted and tried for the Crime of Poligamy, of which ſhe was convicted; whereupon ſhe pleaded the Benefit of Clergy, and was allowed it. Both her Huſbands are now in Goal, one for Debt, and the other for Deſertion.

At the ſame Court, James Corbit, Mariner, was indicted and tried for an Aſſault upon a young Woman of 17 Years of Age, and attempting to raviſh her, of which he was convicted, and ſentenced by the Court to be publickly whipped 20 Stripes, to pay Coſts, and give Bond for his good Behaviour until the next Term.

We hear that Capt. Bennet in a Sloop from New-York for this Place, laden with Wheat, Flour, and other Proviſions was caſt aſhore laſt Monday 7 Night in a Storm near Stanford in Connecticut, but whether the Cargo is loſt we are uncertain.

Yeſterday Captain Trefry arrived here in five Days from Halifax, in Nova Scotia, by whom we have the melancholy Account, that about ten Days ago a Fire broke out in that City, which conſumed Houſes, &c. to the Value of ſome Thouſands of Pounds Sterling.---That five Tranſport Veſſels were arrived there to take on board our Province Troops.---And that no Veſſels were arrived there from England.

NEW-YORK, March 22.

By His Excellency Sir CHARLES HARDY, Knight, Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, and Vice Admiral of the ſame,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS this Government, from a due Senſe of the Importance of removing the French Encroachments at and near Crown Point, and a juſt Reſentment of the Barbarities committed on the Inhabitants, by the Savages infeſting the Weſtern Frontiers of this and the neighbouring Colonies of New Jerſey and Pennſylvania, have determined to make Proviſion for raiſing, paying and ſubſiſting One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifteen effective Men, Officers included; Four Hundred of which Number to be employed in an offenſive War againſt the Indians now in Hoſtility againſt his Majeſty's Subjects in the ſaid Provinces, and the Reſidue to be employed on the Expedition againſt Crown-Point. And as an Encouragement to Perſons to enliſt voluntarily in the ſaid Services, have granted the following Allowances:

To each able bodied Man who ſhall voluntarily enliſt into the Service for the Expedition againſt Crown Point, the Sum of Five Pounds, and the ſame Cloathing as was allowed to thoſe employed in the like Service laſt Year.

To every Officer properly authorized to raiſe the ſaid Forces for the Service againſt Crown-Point, the Sum of Twenty Shillings for each able bodied Voluntier whom they ſhall engage therein.

To each able bodied Man who ſhall voluntarily enliſt into the Service againſt the Indians who infeſt the Weſtern Frontiers of this Province, the Sum of One Pound Ten Shillings, providing himſelf with proper Arms for the ſaid Service.

And that the whole Number of One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifteen effective Men, both Officers and Soldiers, be put upon the ſame Eſtabliſhment with Reſpect to Pay and Proviſions, as the Forces employed on the late Expedition againſt Crown-Point were: I HAVE therefore thought fit to notify the ſame by theſe Preſents, hereby earneſtly inviting his Majeſty's good Subjects chearfully to enliſt themſelves in either of the ſaid Services, and promiſing all thoſe who ſhall enliſt, the Bounty and other Encouragements beforementioned.

GIVEN under my Hand and Seal at Arms, at Fort George, in the City of New-York, the Eighteenth Day of March, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty-ſix, in the Twenty-ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

CHARLES HARDY.

By his Excellency's Command,
G. BANYAR, D. Secry.

GOD ſave the KING.

Monday Morning laſt was taken up on the Jerſey Shore, and brought into the White-Hall Slip, the Ferry Boat in which the melancholy Accident happened the Thurſday before in our Bay. Daniel Fling, one of the Battoe-Men drowned, was found in the Boat, and ſoon after buried; and the Saddle Bags that were ſtill in the Fore-Caſtle, diſcovered that the three Strangers mentioned in our laſt to be likewiſe drowned, were William Lawrence of Raway, and John and William Miller of Satauket, on Long Iſland.

Wedneſday laſt being St. Patrick's Day (Titular Saint of Ireland) a Number of the Gentlemen Natives of that Kingdom, in this City, gave a grand Entertainment at the Crown and Thiſtle near Whitehall; at which were preſent His Excellency our Governor, who wore a Croſs in Honour of the Day; ſundry Members of his Majeſty's Council, and others of the General Aſſembly of this Province.

Saturday laſt Sir John St. Clair, and ſome other Gentlemen of the Army, ſet Sail in a Sloop for Albany.

The ſame Day ſeveral Companies of Battoe-Men alſo went up.

Yeſterday Capt. Spellen, who lately ſail'd for Halifax from this Place with Recruits on board, put back to refit, having met with bad Weather ſoon after he went out.

Capt. Crannel from Cadiz ſince our laſt, brought in three New-York Captains taken by the Spaniards in the Bay of Honduras about two Years ago, and carried home to Old Spain.

On Saturday the 13th Inſt. about 5 o'Clock in the Morning, Capt. Francis Brown, in the Sloop Letitia, bound in here from Boſton, was caſt away on Eaton's Neck, near Huntington, in a hard Gale at N. N. W. by which Accident the Sloop and Cargo is entirely loſt; but the Crew is ſaved.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25.

On Wedneſday, the 17th Inſtant, the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province adjourned till Monday, the Fifth of next Month.

On Thurſday laſt the PHILADELPHIA REGIMENT, conſiſting of upwards of 1000 able-bodied effective Men, beſides Officers, was drawn up under Arms, on Society-hill, and review'd by the Colonel. Each Company met in the Morning at the Houſes of their reſpective Captains, and march'd down Second Street till they came near the New-Market; where the firſt Company that arriv'd halted, drew up in Platoons, and waited till the Second Company came up; and then each Platoon of the Firſt Company fired retreating, according to the Manner of Street-Firing, and the Second Company at the ſame time advanced, and fired in like Manner, till they got Poſſeſſion of the other's Ground. The Third Company then advanced, diſputed and took the Ground from the Second; and ſo on, each Company advancing and retreating in their Turns; the Artillery Company, conſiſting of upwards of 100 Men, with four neatly painted Cannon, drawn by ſome of the largeſt and moſt ſtately Horſes in the Province, being the Company that laſt took Poſſeſſion of the Ground. The whole were then drawn up in Battalion, according to Seniority; and after being review'd, and performing the Manual Exerciſe, march'd through the Town in three Grand Diviſions, according to the following Order, viz.

1. The Major on Horſeback alone.
2. A Serjeant and twelve Men.
3. Eight Hatchet Men in two Ranks.
4. Captain of the Train of Artillery alone.
5. A Platoon of Artillery Company.
6. Two Cannon and the Ammunition Cart, with a Platoon on each Side, and one in the Rear.
7. The Second Lieutenant of the Train alone.
8. Captain of Grenadiers alone.
9. Sixty Grenadiers in Ranks.
10. A Lieutenant of Grenadiers alone.
11. The Staff Officers.
12. The Hautboys and Fifes in Ranks.
13. The Colonel alone.
14. Four Captains at the Head of the Firſt Grand Diviſion.
15. The Firſt Grand Diviſion, with Drums between the Third and Fourth Ranks.
16. Four Lieutenants.
17. The Enſigns at the Head of the Second Grand Diviſion.
18. The Second Grand Diviſion, with Drums between the Third and Fourth Ranks.
19. Three Lieutenants.
20. The Third Grand Diviſion, with Drums between the Third and Fourth Ranks.
21. Three Captains.
22. The Lieutenant-Colonel alone.
23. Sixty Grenadiers in Ranks.
24. Firſt Lieutenant of Grenadiers alone.
25. Eight Hatchet Men in two Ranks.
26. A Platoon of Artillery Company.
27. Two Cannon and an Ammunition Cart, with a Platoon on each Side, and one in the Rear.
28. The Firſt Lieutenant of the Train alone.
29. A Serjeant and twelve Men.

When the Regiment came oppoſite to the Colonel's Door, they were again drawn up in Battalion, and made one general Diſcharge of Small Arms, and ſeveral Diſcharges of Cannon. Then the ſeveral Companies marched off to their reſpective Places of Rendezvous, and ſaluted their Captains on being diſmiſſed with a Diſcharge of their Fire Arms. The whole was conducted with the greateſt Order and Regularity, and notwithſtanding the vaſt Concourſe of People, not the leaſt Accident happened to any One. It is allowed, on all Hands, that moſt of the Platoon Firings, the general Fire of the Regiment, and the Diſcharge of the Artillery, were nearly as well performed as they could be by any Troops whatever. And it is likewiſe agreed, that ſo grand an Appearance was never before ſeen in Pennſylvania.

On Friday Night laſt a Captain of the Militia, with Twenty-four Men, mounted Guard at the Powder Magazine of this City; which Guard is to be continued every Night by all the Officers of the Regiment in their Turns.

In Conſequence of the late Plan of Aſſociation, for promoting Military Diſcipline in this Province, independent of the preſent Militia Law, the following Officers have been choſen and commiſſioned for their reſpective Companies in this City, viz.

For one Troop of Horſe,

Edward Jones, Eſq; Captain; Lyn-Ford Lardner, Eſq; Lieutenant; Mr. John Taylor Cornet; Mr. George Adam Gaab, and Mr. Leonard Melchior, Quarter-maſters.

For two Companies of Foot,

John Kidd, and Charles Batho, Eſquires, Captains; Meſſieurs Walter Shea, and Buckridge Sims, Lieutenants; Meſſieurs Joſeph Stamper, and Peter Turner, Enſigns.

For the Aſſociation Battery Company.

Samuel Mifflin, Eſq; Captain; Mr. Oſwald Eve Lieutenant; Mr. William Moore Enſign.

The above three are alſo recommended to his Honour the Governor by the Managers of the Fort, as Captain, Lieutenant, and Enſign of the ſame.

Nine Companies have alſo choſen their Officers on the Aſſociation Plan in York County, and a conſiderable Number of Companies are now raiſing on the ſame Plan in Cumberland, Lancaſter, and Bucks; a Liſt of the Officers Names ſhall be laid before the Publick as ſoon as they are commiſſioned.

Saturday laſt Captain Calvert arrived here from Barbados, by whom there is Advice, that on the Eighth of laſt Month, about Seven in the Evening, a Fire broke out in Bridgetown, in a Store belonging to one Mr. Blackman, which was full of Cotton, and other Goods, taken out of one of the French Prizes lately carried in there, and burnt with great Violence till Five o'Clock the next Morning, in which Time between 70 and 80 Houſes were deſtroyed, and ſome Lives loſt, and was at laſt got under, by blowing up four Houſes, two at each End of the ſtreet or alley that was on Fire. It is ſaid the Loſs is computed to be above One Hundred Thouſand Pounds. Captain Calvert, in the Storm of the 12th Inſtant, was obliged to cut away his Mainmaſt.

On Sunday Morning came to Town the Indian Chief SCARROYADY, and ANDREW MONTOUR, and brought with them ſome of our friendly Indians, who were miſſing, and thought to have been murdered by the Enemy. They went from this City in December, having chearfully undertaken to go all along the River Saſquehannah, to diſſuade thoſe Indians from joining the Delawares, and thence to proceed to Onondago, to lay the Proceedings of the Delawares and Shawaneſe before the Grand Council of the Six Nations, on the joint Behalf of the Six Nation Indians on our Borders, and of this Government: A Journey of great Conſequence to the Colonies, and which they have performed, tho' with infinite Hazard of their Lives, having been often threatened with immedi- ate Death, time enough to be present at the Great Treaty held at Mount Johnson, where were above Six Hundred Indians, with whom they did us considerable Service. They say, that before they came away, a Party of Warriors, consisting of Deputies of every one of the Six Nations, was actually set off for the Susquehanna, to enjoin the Delawares and Shawanese to desist, or to give them the Hatchet, in the Name of the Six Nations.

By Captain Dark, from St. Christophers, we have Advice, that the Sloop Susannah, Captain Durell, of this Port, had got in there, after having been out 45 Days, and in great Danger of being lost. He was bound to North-Carolina; but on the 25th of December, off of Cape Hatteras, met with a violent Gale of Wind, and very heavy Seas, in which his Vessel overset, and his Cargo shifting, continued in that Situation for ten Hours, when the Weather grew more moderate, the Vessel righted, and, with much Difficulty, he arrived in the above Harbour.

The Sloop Diamond, Capt. Comron, is also arrived there from this Place.
